SILVERDOME PRESS BOX

The working area for writers, broadcasters and overhead photographers is located on the Club Level between the south and west corners of the stadium. The facility can accommodate over 150 media representatives in the upper press area and contains 15 booths in the lower area for radio, television, photographers, public address and scoreboard operations.

CREDENTIALS

All applications must be made through Bill Keenist, the Lions' Director of Public Relations. Credentials are available to working members of the media only. Advance notification of requests is appreciated. Season credentials will be issued to appropriate outlets. Since no Press Will Call window is available due to the need for a parking pass to gain press lot access, most credentials and parking passes are mailed. Please allow AT LEAST three days for mail delivery. Credentials can be left at a local hotel for pickup on game day. That hotel is the Northfield Hilton, which is located eight miles south of the Silverdome off I-75 at the Crooks Road exit. The Northfield Hilton front desk is used as a credential pickup point when requests are made too late to guarantee mail delivery.

PARKING

A parking pass is required to enter the press parking area, located on the southwest side of the Silverdome. Enter Gate 1 from Opdyke Road and proceed to the press parking area adjacent to the Press Box. Press parking is not automatically issued to every credentialed member of the media covering the game because of an insufficient number of parking passes and spaces.

SERVICES

Statistical information is distributed before, during and after the game. Spotters and statisticians are available to radio and TV crews upon advance request. Food and beverages for the working media are available in the Press Lounge. Your game credential entitles you to the buffet meal that is served prior to the game. The Lions' Public Relations staff is here to help. WILLIAM CLAY FORD

Owner and President

Undoubtedly the Detroit Lions' biggest fan, owner William Clay Ford's passion for his football team can be traced to his childhood, when his father, Edsel Ford, took him to the University of Detroit Stadium to see the first Lions' team play in their maiden season in the Motor City in 1934. Bill Ford to his friends and business associates, he became a club director in 1956 and was asked by then-Lions' President Edwin J. (Andy) Anderson to become Lions' President in 1961.

In November of 1963 Mr. Ford purchased the team outright for $4.5 million. He officially took over the club Jan. 10, 1964, with Mr. Anderson as General Manager and J. Russell (Russ) Thomas as Director of Player Personnel. Mr. Thomas succeeded Mr. Anderson as Vice-President and General Manager prior to the 1967 season.

The 1988 season will mark Mr. Ford's 25th as sole owner of the Lions. During his ownership, Mr. Ford has provided the team with stability, integrity and honest leadership — characteristics that seem atypical in today's modern era of sports, where ownership changes and franchise movements have become annual occurrences.

The 24 seasons the Lions have played under Bill Ford's ownership have had their high moments. The 1969 through '75 teams all finished in second place in the NFC Central Division, with a high-water win-loss mark of 10-4 in '70. The '80 and '81 teams also finished in second place, and the 1983 club captured the NFC Central Division championship. A win in playoff competition has eluded Ford's Lions, however, and just ten seasons have been .500 or better. "We want a year-in, year-out contending team, one that has the capability of going to the Super Bowl every season," says Mr. Ford. "It has been a long wait for all of us to see the Lions return as one of pro football's best teams, and there must continue to be the common goal throughout the organization that a winning football team is all that matters."

Of course Mr. Ford's other passion in life is the automobile industry, he being a grandson of inventor and auto pioneer Henry Ford, founder of the Ford Motor Company.

He is Vice-Chairman of the Board of Ford Motor Company, and Chairman of the Finance Committee, the Executive Committee and the Design Committee.

Mr. Ford also is one of four members of the company's Office of the Chief Executive who share in the responsibilities for general management of the auto company. He has been a member of the Ford Board of Directors since 1948.

Automobile design long has been a source of great pride to Mr. Ford. On his way to his present vice chairmanship of the company, he gained special satisfaction as the executive in charge of the design, development and subsequent introduction of the Continental Mark II, the successor to the classic Lincoln Continental that had been developed and introduced by his father Edsel in 1939.

The youngest of Edsel Ford's four children, William Clay Ford was born March 14, 1925. He graduated from Yale with a Bachelor of Science degree in economics following a tour of duty with the U.S. Naval Air Corps. He then joined Ford's sales and advertising staff and later served on the industrial relations staff where he was a member of the committee that negotiated the historic 1949 contract with the UAW-CIO.

He enrolled at Yale following his military discharge and eventually captained both the tennis and soccer teams at the Ivy League School. He was a nationally-ranked tennis player until two Achilles tendon surgeries regulated him to the sidelines. Mr. Ford's athletic participation today includes some tennis, although he prefers golf, a game in which he became nearly a scratch performer.

A major change in Lions' history occurred under Mr. Ford's guidance when he moved the team in 1975 from the downtown-located Tiger Stadium to metropolitan Pontiac and the sparkling, 80,000-plus seat Pontiac Silverdome. In '80, the Lions' Silverdome paid attendance of 634,204 fans was the highest single-season (eight games) paid attendance figure in NFL history, a record that still stands. He then led the spirited effort that brought Super Bowl XVI to the Silverdome in January of 1982. It was an event that united many factions throughout the state of Michigan.

Mr. Ford also is the Chairman of the Board of the Edison Institute, which operates Greenfield Village and the Henry Ford Museum in Dearborn; is a trustee of the Eisenhower Medical Center; and serves as a director or a trustee for the Boys' Club of America, the National Tennis Hall of Fame, the Automotive Hall of Fame, the United Foundation of Detroit, and the Economic Club of Detroit.

Included among his more recent appointments have been his naming as a trustee for the Michigan Heart Association and to the Ronald Reagan Presidential Foundation. He received an honorary doctor of science degree from the Art Center College of Design in Pasadena, Calif., in 1981.

He is married to the former Martha Firestone of Akron, Ohio, and they are the parents of three daughters — Martha, Sheila and Elizabeth — and a son, Bill Jr., who serves the Lions as club treasurer.

RUSS THOMAS

Executive Vice President and General Manager

One of the most respected and dedicated executives in the National Football League, the Lions' Russ Thomas enters his 42nd year of service with the Detroit Lions. Easily one of the most qualified general managers in the National Football League, Thomas has literally "done it all" for the Lions.

Russ has been a player, an assistant coach, a scout, the director of player personnel and he even served as a broadcaster for the Lions when he teamed with the legendary Van Patrick on the Lions' telecasts during the early 1960s. With that resume, it's easy to see why there's no one better prepared or more experienced than Russ to lead the Lions.

Always looking for ways to improve his team and organization, Thomas' leadership was never more evident than it was during the past year.

For starters, when Thomas hired former Chicago Bears' General Manager Jerry Vainisi in March of 1987, he laid the groundwork for a much-needed change in the Lions' player personnel department. Since 1978, the Lions' head coach had been in charge of all player procurement, including the college draft. Thomas felt the demands of coaching were far too great to add the additional responsibilities of player personnel.

So after the 1987 season, Vainisi was promoted to Vice-President for Player Personnel and most experts agree the 1988 draft — under the new alignment put in place by Thomas — was one of the Lions' best in recent memory.

Thomas also instituted a unique off-season program involving everyone in the Lions' organization from secretaries to assistant coaches to quarterbacks.

Realizing the external pressures and demands of our society, Thomas established this unprecedented "continuing education" program in order to help Lions' employees and players.

With the aid of team physician, Dr. Keith Burch and professionals from Henry Ford Hospital, the weekly seminars covered a wide range a contemporary issues such as: stress management, family counseling, power of the mind, performance enhancement, alcohol and drug abuse, AIDS, proper diet, and relaxation techniques.

The program was hailed throughout the NFL and other teams are considering implementing similar programs.

Russ Thomas first came to the Detroit Lions 42 years ago as a heralded player out of Ohio State University. His long affiliation with the Lions began with the 1946 NFL draft as the Buckeyes' two-way tackle was tabbed early in the selections that year by Detroit. He became an instant pro success by being named All-Pro his rookie season before advancing to the stature of team captain in 1949. His playing career, however, ended that season when a knee injury forced Russ into a premature retirement.

The injury eventually led to new challenges for Russ off the field. He left the Lions for two years, 1950-51, to work for Coach Joe Bach at St. Bonaventure University. Once football season ended each year, Thomas returned to Detroit to work in private business. It was during one of those off-seasons that Russ was contacted by Lions' Coach Buddy Parker to rejoin the club as an assistant coach. Russ did so in 1952 and he has remained with the Lions ever since.

While hired in '52 primarily as an assistant coach, Russ also joined the Lions as the club's primary college scout and also as the person in the organization responsible for scouting each week's pro opponent. Thus, long before the advent of film exchanges and computers, it was Thomas' scouting reports that helped bring Detroit NFL titles in 1952, '53 and '57.

For his efforts, Russ was promoted up the front office ladder, taking over as director of player personnel following William Clay Ford's outright purchase of the club in early 1964. In addition to utilizing Russ' talents at recognizing college talent and heading up the team's college draft each year, Russ also became the club's chief contract negotiator, a task he turned over this past off-season to the Lions' new vice-president for finance, Chuck Schmidt, who also has served as the Lions' as controller for nine years.

Thomas' rise to the top of Lions' management hit high gear in 1967 when he was named Vice President and General Manager, handling the day-to-day operations of the organization. He was appointed Executive Vice President and General Manager in 1972. Among his many off-the-field contributions was playing a key role in the approval and construction of the Pontiac Silverdome. Russ led the effort to bring Super Bowl XVI (1982) to the Lions' home, the first and only time the NFL's championship game as been ventured to a northern climate.

"I've always found Russ to be courteous, resourceful and honest in all of his dealings, not only with his peers, but with everyone he comes in contact with," says George Young, the general manager of the Super Bowl XXI Champion New York Giants. "He's also been very willing to assist those who have sought his highly-regarded opinions and outstanding experience. He truly is a respected leader in our profession."

A native of Griffithsville, W. Va., Russ was such an outstanding schoolboy football prospect as a lineman that he was wooed to Charleston, W. Va., to play high school football. While in high school he also excelled as the state champion in the discus and the shot put, setting state records in both events. Considered the most sought-after schoolboy athlete in West Virginia, Thomas was honored for his athletic and professional accomplishments in 1983 when he was voted into the West Virginia State Hall of Fame.

He was recruited to Ohio State by legendary Paul Brown, and he played one season for Coach Brown before Paul moved on the old All-American Football Conference and started the Cleveland Browns. Russ was All-Big Ten and All-America in football at OSU and was a key member of the Buckeyes' 1944 national championship team. As a collegian, he lettered three years in football, twice in track and once in wrestling.

Today, Russ and his wife Dorothy live in Birmingham, a suburb located north of Detroit. They are the parents of two grown sons, John and Jim, and they have one granddaughter.

Lions' GM Russ Thomas, an Ohio State alumnus, is joined by two 1988 Lions' draft picks — William White and Chris Spielman, both of whom played their college ball at Ohio State.

DARRYL ROGERS

Head Coach and Director of Football Operations

The transition appears to be complete.

It's taken some time, but from all indications Darryl Rogers finally has "his" football team in place. And that's why the Detroit Lions' head coach and his staff share in the cautious optimism that surround the 1988 Lions.

"We have undergone a lot of changes in the past few years," Rogers said. "And I feel the majority of the changes we've made have been positive ones."

"We made a quarterback (Chuck Long) our No. 1 draft pick in 1986 and lived up to our commitment last season by allowing him to take every offensive snap.

"We have become a much younger football team by building through the draft," Rogers continued. "When you allow your young players the time to develop there are going to be some growing pains and that was evident in 1987. But the end result should be much more positive. I feel we will start to see our patience pay off in 1988."

The evolution of the Lions since Rogers became head coach on Feb. 6, 1985 has been nothing short of remarkable. Only three players — fullback James Jones, and cornerbacks Bobby Watkins and Bruce McNorton — are projected to start in 1988 at the same positions they finished the 1984 season.

Further exemplifying the overhaul that has taken place can be found in this statistic: Of the 45 players on the final 1984 roster — the year before Rogers took over — 34 are no longer with the Lions.

While rebuilding the Lions, Rogers has not ignored the common denominator of recent NFL championship teams — that being defense wins championships. The first six draft picks in 1987 were defensive players, including all-rookie standouts LB Dennis Gibson and NT Jerry Ball. And this past spring the Lions used their first two picks to select two of the premier collegiate defensive football players in safety Bennie Blades and linebacker Chris Spielman.

"When you look at championship-caliber football teams, more often than not you will see two characteristics — a strong defense and excellent leadership from the quarterback position," Rogers said. "We feel Chuck Long is going to be a fine NFL quarterback for us for years to come. He is just going to get better and better. And don't forget we have Eric Hippel back with us (after missing all of 1987 with an injury). Eric is a proven NFL quarterback and we can win with him."

"And defense, of course, is crucial," Rogers continued. "That's why we've placed such a heavy emphasis on defense the past two drafts."

"I'm optimistic. Our coaching staff is optimistic and our players are optimistic," Rogers continued. "No one is really giving us much of a shot this season and that's fine with us. But we know we can be a very competitive football team. We are anxious to find out just how good we can be."

Rogers' tenure with the Lions can be likened to the proverbial roller coaster ride. In his first season (1985) he revitalized and enthused a veteran Lions' club and guided it to a 7-9 record. In fact, the Lions were in playoff competition until the next-to-last weekend of the '85 season. Despite an onslaught of injuries (13 starters missed a total of 91 games that season), Rogers and his coaching staff patchworked Detroit through a campaign that included unprecedented back-to-back home victories over the Super Bowl XIX participants (49ers and Dolphins) and wins over two other 1985 playoff-bound teams (Jets and Cowboys).

His sophomore season (1986) saw marked improvement throughout the team, despite its 5-11 record. In four of the Lions' losses that season, the Lions' offense scored more points than the opposition's offense, but the difference in those games came via turnovers and special teams mistakes with the Lions yielding an interception return for a TD (in a 14-10 loss at L.A. Rams), a fumble return for a TD (13-7 loss at Chicago), a punt return for a TD (24-21 loss at Cleveland), and a blocked punt that resulted in a TD and a punt return for a TD (44-40 loss to Green Bay).

As frustrating as 1986 may have been, 1987 had to be the ultimate acid test. As Rogers has stated, last season "was like three seasons in one, a really strange situation.

"Last year was difficult for everyone associated with our football team," Rogers said. "We went through so many different phases — the preseason, the strike, the replacement games, the return of the regular players. It was very difficult, with such a young team, and especially a young quarterback, to sustain any continuity."

"But I am optimistic and confident we all learned from last year's experience and we will be much better for it."

The Lions did finish the 1987 season with two wins in their final three games, marking the first time since the championship season of 1983 the Lions won a game in the month of December.

The 1988 season will represent the 24th consecutive year Rogers has been a team's grid boss. In 20 years as a college head coach, his teams compiled a combined 129-84-7 win-loss record starting in 1965 when he became the first-ever head coach at Hayward State College in Hayward, California.

Following just one year at Hayward, he was named head coach at his alma mater, Fresno State, in 1966, then moved to San Jose State in 1973. The head coaching trail later took him to Michigan State in 1976 and to Arizona State in 1980.

Rogers' coaching talents hit the national spotlight most prominently during his final two college coaching stops. Following a 4-6-1 first year at Michigan State, the Spartans jumped to 7-3-1 in 1977 despite a sanction-saddled situation, and Rogers was named the Big Ten Coach-of-the-Year.

Even better things came in '78 when MSU finished 8-3 and earned a Big Ten co-title with Michigan. The Spartans also defeated the Wolverines in Ann Arbor, 24-15, to become the first team other than Michigan or Ohio State to win a Big Ten crown in 11 years.

Along the way, Rogers' teams began rewriting offensive record books. The '78 Spartans averaged 523 yards per game and 41 points per contest, startling the previously ground-oriented conference. Both figures were MSU and Big Ten marks at the time. Rogers' offensive style was a harbinger of things to come in the Big Ten as many conference teams since have switched to more wide-open, pass oriented offenses.

The 1978 season brought the Spartans a No. 12 national ranking and Rogers was named national Coach-of-the-Year by The Sporting News.

He jumped from the frying pan into the fire in 1980 when he agreed to assume the reins of the controversy-marred Arizona State program that soon became probation sentenced.

Undaunted by the factionalism that surrounded the dismissal of popular, long-time head coach Frank Kush, Rogers immediately took the Sun Devils to consecutive 7-4, 9-2 and 10-2 records with decidedly different teams. His 1981 club produced 35.8 points and 498.7 yards per game and the team's total yardage output of 5,486 yards led the nation while also setting a new Pac-10 Conference standard.

Darryl's '82 Sun Devil team then turned to defense to win ten games with the nation's stingiest unit — allowing just 228.9 yards per game. It was the first time a Pac-10 team had led the nation in defense.

Rogers, who turned 53 on May 28, is a native Californian from Los Angeles who grew up in Long Beach, where he attended Jordan High School before enrolling at Fresno State. An all-league receiver in high school and junior college, Darryl played at Fresno State while participating in a work-scholarship program, holding down a warehouse job.

His college roommate was current Nevada-Las Vegas basketball coach Jerry Tarkanian. He was the No. 2 ranked small college pass receiver in the nation as a junior with 33 receptions. During summers while in college Darryl worked in the recreation department in Long Beach and once gave a seven-year old named Billie Jean Moffitt (King) a tennis lesson. Following college he served two years in the U.S. Marine Corps before having a brief stint with the Los Angeles Rams during training camp in 1959.

An avid golfer with about a six handicap, Rogers hit the big time this past June when he won the prestigious Crosby Open. Rogers and his partner, Lovic Brooks, had a net score of 32 under par for the three-round tournament to win the $100,000 charity first prize. Rogers will donate his $50,000 share to a yet-to-be-determined charity. He holds a bachelor's and master's degrees in physical education from Fresno State. He and his wife Marsha have three daughters — Jamie, Keely and Stacy.

CHUCK SCHMIDT

Vice-President/Finance

One of the National Football League's rising young executives, Chuck Schmidt enters his first season as the club's newly appointed Vice-President for Finance.

In his new capacity, Schmidt will oversee all contract signings and is charged with the crucial, yet often thankless task of signing the Lions' draft choices.

Schmidt, 40, has been with the Lions since 1976 when he joined the club as a CPA. He soon thereafter was promoted to the team's controller.

A Detroit native, Schmidt was a standout athlete at Detroit's Lutheran East High School. He received numerous athletic scholarship offers before accepting a scholarship from the University of Michigan where he earned his undergraduate degree in business. While at Michigan, Schmidt was a three-year letterman at shortstop for the Wolverine baseball team.

He then earned a graduate degree in finance from Detroit's Wayne State University, before joining the accounting firm of Ernst and Whinney, where for five years he worked as a tax specialist.

For the last 11 years Schmidt has assisted Lions' General Manager and Executive Vice-President Russ Thomas in contract negotiations and with the day-to-day operations of the club. In 1987, with Schmidt spearheading the contract signing of the Lions' draft picks, the Lions were the only team in the NFL to have all its draft picks signed prior to the opening of training camp.

Schmidt also has been the Lions' liaison with the NFL regarding financial, pension and other league concerns, and along with Thomas, represents the Lions at League meetings. Schmidt, and his wife Sharon, have three children and reside in Rochester Hills, Mich.

JERRY VAINISI

Vice-President/Player Personnel

The newest member of the Lions' management team, Jerry Vainisi serves as the club's Vice-President for Player Personnel. He oversees all areas of player personnel, including the draft, trades, and other player acquisition matters.

The former general manager of the Chicago Bears, Vainisi joined the Lions in March of 1987 as the team's legal counsel. He was promoted after the 1987 season to his present position and was instrumental in Lions' widely-acclaimed 1988 draft.

Vainisi is a veteran NFL executive. He joined the Chicago Bears in 1972 as controller and In-House Counsel. In subsequent years, he also served as the Bears' treasurer, corporate assistant secretary and as a member of the Bears' Board of Directors.

In 1983 George Halas Sr. named Vainisi the Bears Vice-President and General Manager and three seasons later, Chicago ruled the football world when it won Super Bowl XX.

During his tour years as Bears' G.M., the club compiled a regular-season record of 47-17, while capturing three consecutive NFC Central Division Championships.

Chicago's playoff record during this period was 4-2. Vainisi left the Bears' organization after the 1986 season.

The Chicago native is a graduate of Georgetown University and Chicago's Kent College of Law. After completing his education, Vainisi worked briefly as a radio sports announcer in Monmouth, Ill., before joining the accounting firm of Arthur Anderson Company in 1966. Vainisi, who will turn 47 this October, and his wife Doris have five children and reside in Bloomfield Hills, Mich.

THE COACHING STAFF

BOB BAKER

Offensive Coordinator
4th Year with Lions
6th Year in the NFL

A 23-year veteran of professional and collegiate coaching, Bob Baker joined the Lions with Darryl Rogers prior to the 1985 season as offensive coordinator and tutor of the team's quarterbacks.

Before coming to Detroit, Baker spent two seasons (1983-84) as quarterback coach of the Los Angeles Rams, going to the Rams from Rogers' coaching staff at Arizona State. Both Rams' teams earned playoff berths during Baker's stint in Los Angeles. The '84 team won 10 games, including nine under untested quarterback Jeff Kemp, who developed greatly under Baker.

Baker also coached professionally in the Canadian Football League, serving three years as the head coach of the Canadian Football League's Calgary Stampeders (1974-76).

During his tenure at Arizona State (1980-82), the Sun Devils led the NCAA in total offensive yards in '81 with 5,486 yards.

A 1951 graduate of Ball State (Ind.), Baker coached at four different Indiana high schools — Muncie, Royerton, Ft. Wayne Southside and Anderson Madison Heights — before becoming a college assistant coach.

His coaching stops along the college level included stints as an assistant at Indiana (1966-73), Michigan State (1977-79, his first tour with Rogers), and Arizona State. He coached in the '68 Rose Bowl with the Indiana Hoosiers of then-head coach John Pont.

Baker, 61, was born in Lima, Ohio, and was reared in Bluffton, Ind. He and wife Alyce have four daughters — Lisa, Rebecca, Sue and Debbie — and live in Rochester Hills, Mich.

WAYNE FONTES

Now in his fourth season with the Lions, Wayne Fontes begins the 1988 season with added responsibilities in addition to his duties as defensive coordinator. He also takes over as secondary coach in a realignment of the defensive staff.

continued

Following a nine-year tenure with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers that saw him rise through the Bucs' coaching staff to become the No. 1 assistant on John McKay's staff, Fontes left the Bucs to become the Lions' defensive coordinator in the spring of 1985.

The Lions' defense made great strides under Fontes and his new 3-4 defensive alignment during the 1985 '86 seasons, but injuries to several key performers last year set back the progress of the defense.

A former AFL defensive back with the New York Jets, Fontes advanced from secondary coach to defensive coordinator to assistant head coach of the Buccaneers during his years at Tampa. He was first named the team's defensive coordinator in 1982 when Tom Bass left the club for a similar position in San Diego. Under Fontes that year, the Bucs led the NFC in defense.

The Canton, Ohio native was a two-sport star (football and baseball) at Michigan State, where he earned All-Big 10 honors at defensive back. He was selected to play in the North-South and Senior Bowl All-Star games in 1962 before being drafted by the Jets, where he started in the defensive backfield in 1963-64, but had his playing career cut short by a broken leg. Entering 1988, Fontes still held the Jets' record for the longest interception return, and 83-yarder against Houston (12-15-63).

His first coaching job was directing the freshman team at Michigan State in 1965 while he was working on his master's degree in administration. He coached at Visitation High School in Bay City, Mich., in 1966-67, winning the Michigan Class B state championship in '67 with a team that went 10-0, before serving as defensive backfield coach at three universities — Dayton ('68), Iowa (1969-71), and Southern California (1972-75). It was at the latter stop Fontes began a 13-year association with McKay, moving on to the expansion Bucs with McKay in '76.

Fontes, whose brother Len is the defensive backfield coach of the New York Giants, lives with his wife Evelyn in Rochester Hills, Mich., and they have three children — Mike, Scott and Kim. Fontes, 48, was born Feb. 2, 1940.

CARL BATTERSHELL

Special Teams
4th Year with Lions
4th Year in the NFL

The architect of one of the league's top special teams' units, Carl Battershell enters his fourth season of pro football in 1988.

In an unofficial ranking of NFL special teams, the Lions had the second-best unit in the league in '87 behind the New Orleans Saints. The rankings rated each phase of a particular team's kicking game (punt coverage, net and gross punting, punts had blocked, ratio of inside 20/touchback punts, punt returns, opponent's gross and net punting, blocked punts, kickoff returns, kickoff coverage, PAT percentage, field goal percentage, field goal defense percentage, special team TDs, and TDs given up by the special teams). The 1987 Lions' special teams unit easily was one of the most improved in the NFL. Under the same ranking system in the 1986, the Lions' teams were ranked 24th in the league.

Also in 1986, Detroit's special teams gave up three touchdowns (two punt returns and one blocked punt), while in '87 the Lions' special teams did not allow an opponent's TD.

Battershell attended Bowling Green State University, where he was an All-Mid-American Conference offensive tackle. The 39-year-old Battershell (11-5-48) coached offensive linemen and special teams during a collegiate coaching career that included stops at Bowling Green (1973-76), Syracuse (1977-79), West Virginia (1980-82), and Arizona State (with Darryl Rogers, 1983-84).

He and his wife Susan live in nearby Rochester. They have four children — Scott, Christopher, Jason and Lisette.

LEW CARPENTER

Receivers

2nd Year with Lions

25th Year in the NFL

Lew Carpenter begins his 25th year of coaching in the NFL and his second with the Lions as receivers coach. The 56-year-old Carpenter is a former ('53) eighth-round draft choice of the Lions at running back and he spent three seasons with the team (1953-55). He led Detroit in rushing in '54 and '55, gaining 476 yards in '54 and 543 in '55. The first time he touched the ball in a pro game as a Lions' rookie, Carpenter returned a punt 73 yards for a touchdown.

He was traded to the Cleveland Browns and later to the Green Bay Packers, where he culminated his career on two World Championship teams under Vince Lombardi ('61 and '62). Carpenter played five positions as a pro — split end, flanker, tight end, fullback and halfback.

He began his coaching career with Minnesota in 1965, and also has worked for Atlanta, Washington, St. Louis, Houston and Green Bay. As the Packers' receivers coach from 1975-85, Carpenter developed three Pro Bowl receivers, all in the same year ('83) — James Lofton, John Jefferson and Paul Coffman — a feat that has never been duplicated in the NFL.

In 1980, five Packers caught 40 or more passes and in '83 four players caught 50 or more passes.

His coaching expertise was evident in his first season as a Lions' tutor. Wide receiver Pete Mandley, who never had even started a game prior to 1987 had an exceptional campaign during the strike-shortened season. Mandley's seven TD receptions were the most by Lion since 1968 and his team-leading 58 was the sixth-highest in club history. A native of West Memphis, Ark., Carpenter and his wife Ann have four daughters — Cheryl, Cathy, Lisa and Rebecca. Lew makes his home in Lake Orion, Mich.

BILL MUIR

Offensive Line
4th Year with Lions
11th Year in the NFL

One of the strong points for the Lions entering for the 1988 season is the offensive line, which has been molded by line coach Bill Muir into one of the league's top units. Last year the Lions' line yielded only 17 sacks during the 12 regular-squad games.

Muir, a native of Pittsburgh, became the offensive line coach of the Lions in '85 following a football career that dates back 18 years to the Continental Football League and includes nine years of coaching as an assistant at five different colleges.

The 45-year-old Muir (10-25-42) spent three seasons (1982-84) with New England as the offensive line coach prior to joining the Lions. During Muir's first two seasons with New England, the Patriots' offense had the best team rushing total (3,592 yards) in the NFL. In each of his three seasons at New England, he had at least one offensive lineman make the Pro Bowl. Prior to that, he was with Tampa Bay for four years (1978-81), first as a scout, and the last three years as Director of Pro Personnel.

Before entering the NFL, Muir was an assistant coach at Susquehanna (1965), Delaware Valley (1966-67), Rhode Island (1970-71), Idaho State (1972-73) and at Southern Methodist (1976-77). He also coached in the Continental Football League with the Orlando Panthers (1968-69) as offensive coordinator and in the World Football League with the Houston-Shreveport franchise (1974-75), in the same capacity.

Muir played three years (as a tackle) at Susquehanna, a small Pennsylvania college, making all-conference his final two seasons. He and his wife Barbara and their two children, Keelan and Brady, live in Rochester Hills, Mich.

DICK MODZELEWSKI

Defensive Line
1st Year with Lions
21st Year in the NFL

One of the NFL's most highly-respected defensive coaches, Dick Modzelewski became Detroit's new defensive line coach after Rex Norris resigned to accept a similar coaching position at the University of Florida.

Modzelewski, 57, will enter his 21st season as an NFL assistant after spending the past four seasons as defensive coordinator of the Green Bay Packers (1984-87).

He began his pro coaching career with the Cleveland Browns (1968) before moving to the New York Giants (1978) and then to the Cincinnati Bengals (1979-83). While in Cincinnati, his defensive line helped lead the Bengals to Super Bowl XVI in the Pontiac Silverdome against the San Francisco 49ers in 1982, and the Bengals achieved a No. 1 ranking in the NFL defensively in 1983.

Modzelewski moved to Green Bay with Forrest Gregg in '84 as defensive coordinator, where he took over the NFL's worst — 28th ranked — defense. He led the Packers to a 16th-place ranking in '84, followed by 12th-place finishes in '85 and '86, and a 14th-place defensive finish last season.

The West Natrona, Pa., native had established an impressive background as a player before he became an NFL assistant. As a player, Modzelewski starred at the University of Maryland where he was named the Outland Trophy winner as the nation's premier college lineman in his senior season (1952). Originally a second-round NFL draft choice with Washington, his pro playing career spanned 14 seasons. He played for the Redskins (1953-54), Pittsburgh (1955), Giants ('56-63) and Cleveland (1964-66). He played on the 1956 Giants' and '64 Browns NFL championship teams and was named to the Pro Bowl in 1964.

Modzelewski and his wife Dorothy, have four children — Mark, Laurie, Terrie and Amie — and live in Rochester Hills.

MIKE MURPHY

Inside Linebackers
4th Year with Lions
4th Year in the NFL

The final assistant hired in 1985 on Darryl Rogers' all-new assistant coaching staff, Mike Murphy came to the Lions following a seven-year stint coaching defenses in the Canadian Football League and the United States Football League. Murphy had spent the previous two seasons (1983-84) as the defensive line coach of the Chicago Blitz. Prior to that, he was for five seasons the defensive coordinator of the Saskatchewan Roughriders.

Last year he molded rookie and eighth-round draft pick Dennis Gibson into one of the NFL's top rookie defenders. Gibson became the first rookie in team history to lead the Lions in tackles and the first linebacker to turn that trick since the 1983 season. Murphy also in 1987 coached the teams' defensive MVP (Jimmy Williams) and a Pro Bowl alternate (Michael Cofer).

He began his coaching career, which has spanned 20 years, at the high school level in the '60s in Boulder, Colo., then in Denver, and later in Woonsocket, S.D.

Murphy, who will turn 44 on September 25, attended college in South Dakota, at Huron College, where he played guard and linebacker for four years. He moved into collegiate coaching as an assistant in 1974 at Idaho State, where he advanced to defensive coordinator by 1976. The following year, he became the linebacker coach at Western Illinois ('87).

A native of Manhattan, N.Y., Murphy graduate from Greenwich (Conn.) High. He holds a master's degree in educational administration from the University of Vermont. Mike and he and his wife Robin have two children — Sam and Sarah — and they reside in Rochester Hills.

From 1977-82, Rapp was the head coach of the British Columbia Lions of the Canadian Football League, compiling a win-loss record of 55-42-4. He twice led the BC Lions into the Western Conference championship game and his teams qualified for the playoffs in three of his six seasons there.

A graduate of Missouri, he entered college coaching at Arizona ('65-66) in '65 following nine years as a high school coach. Rapp returned to his alma mater in 1967, and remained there as an assistant until joining Edmonton of the CFL in '72 as offensive coordinator.

Originally from Marionville, Mo., the 53-year-old Rapp and his wife Carol have three daughters — Rhonda, Paula and Maria. They reside in Rochester Hills, Mich.

WILLIE SHAW

4th Year with Lions
4th Year in the NFL

An excellent teacher of the game, Willie Shaw is in his fourth year as a member of the Detroit staff, and his first as outside linebacker coach. Shaw previously coached the defensive backs during his first three seasons, and his knowledge of the passing game will help the Lions at the outside linebacking area.

In 1985 and 1986 under Shaw, Detroit ranked fifth and fourth respectively in the NFL in pass defense.

An honorable mention All-America defensive back at New Mexico, Shaw attended college following a service hitch in the U.S. Air Force.

His collegiate coaching career has included stops as an assistant at San Diego City College (1970-72), Stanford (73-76), Cal State-Long Beach (77-78), Oregon ('79) and five seasons at Arizona State ('80-84) where he coached the defensive backs for Darryl Rogers.

A native of San Diego, Shaw also served as a high school head coach at San Diego High. He and his wife Gay have three children: David, Eric and Tawnya, and they live in Rochester Hills, Mich. Shaw, 44, was born Jan. 1, 1944.

Entering his 23rd year with the Lions, Kent Falb is one of the most respected trainers in the National Football League and throughout the field of athletic medicine. He was named the 1984 Professional Athletic Trainer of the Year," as selected by the National Athletic Trainers Association (NATA).

In June of '87, he had the most prestigious honor of being the keynote speaker for the NATA convention in Columbus, Ohio. It marked the first time in NATA history that a professional trainer was selected to deliver the keynote speech, which was presented to an audience of nearly 5,000.

Along with his assistant Joe Recknagel, Falb oversees all rehabilitation programs, off-season conditioning work, and of course, the treatment of players' injuries.

A native of Elgin, Iowa, Falb graduated from the University of Iowa in '64 and received a Physical Therapy certificate from Iowa one year later. He began his athletic training career in 1959 as an assistant trainer at the U.S. Military Academy at West Point.

The next year, he was named head trainer at Boston College and moved to the Lions as assistant trainer under Millard Kelly in 1966. He assumed his present position as head trainer with the Lions in '67.

Counting exhibition and playoff games, Falb enters the 1988 season having worked 433 games for the Lions (304 are regular-season games). JOE RECKNAGEL

Assistant Trainer
9th Year with Lions

Every head trainer in professional sports will tell you the success of his operation depends greatly on the assistant trainer. So when Lions' head trainer Kent Falb was named the 1984 Professional Trainer of the Year, a big assist was credited to Joe Recknagel, his assistant the past nine years.

A native of Toledo, Ohio, Recknagel began his athletic training career as a student trainer for four years at Rogers High School in Toledo. After graduating from Rogers, he attended Ohio University where he was a student assistant trainer four years (1974-78). While at O.U., he assisted Falb at the Lions' training camp during the summers of 1977-79. After graduation in 1978, Recknagel accepted the position of graduate assistant trainer at Marshall University in Huntington, W. Va.

In 1979, he was promoted to assistant trainer at Marshall, and during his tenure there, he worked with the football, wrestling and basketball teams. In June of '80, he joined the Lions.

Recknagel, 32, also donates a great deal of his time and expertise to the Oakland County Special Olympics and to both the Winter and Summer State (of Michigan) Special Olympic Games, which are held each February and May.

He also serves on the Professional Football Athletic Trainers Society's advisory board selected this year to meet with a team representing Gatorade Thirst Quencher for the mutual benefit of both parties. A member of the National Athletic Trainers Association of America, Recknagel is single and resides in Lake Orion, Mich.

As head coach at his alma mater, North Catholic, he compiled three consecutive undefeated seasons (1968-70). In '70, he began working for the Pittsburgh Steelers on a part-time basis doing film evaluation and then joined BLESTO in 1973.

TEAM PHYSICIANS

Dr. Keith Burch

Two top physicians from Henry Ford Hospital serve the Detroit Lions as team doctors, Dr. Keith Burch as club internist and Dr. David Collon as orthopedic surgeon. Dr. Burch has been a full-time member of the Lions' staff since 1980, while Dr. Collon came aboard in 1985. They are contemporaries — Dr. Burch is 47 (12-10-41) and Dr. Collon is 48 (2-17-40) — both served their internships at Henry Ford and both returned to Ford Hospital in 1972, although both serve the hospital staff in different roles today than the ones they performed in '72.

Today, Dr. Burch is the Medical Director at the Henry Ford West Bloomfield Hospital, a post he was appointed to in July of 1985. He went to the West Bloomfield Center in 1979 as the division head for internal medicine. His internship at Henry Ford in Detroit came in 1967-68 following his graduation from the University of Cincinnati College of Medicine. Dr. Burch's undergraduate studies were taken at the Ohio-located University of Akron. He is a graduate of Akron St. Vincent High School, now Akron St. Vincent-St. Mary's.

Dr. Burch served his residencies at Henry Ford Hospital in Detroit from 1968-69 and at the Ohio State University Hospital from 1971-72. He also served at the U.S. Army Hospital in Ft. Gordon, Ga., in 1969-70 and in Vietnam for one year ('70-71). His certifications include a diplomate member of the American Board of Internal Medicine and a subspecialty boards membership for infectious diseases. He also is a clinical associate professor of medicine at the University of Michigan and holds memberships in the American Federation for Clinical Research, the Michigan Heart Association, the Wayne County Medical Society, the American Medical Association, the Infectious Diseases Society of America, the American Academy of Medical Directors and the National Football League Physicians' Society.

Dr. Burch and his wife Kathryn (Kitty) live in Birmingham and have two daughters, Kathy and Michelle. An avid golfer, he played that sport while an undergrad at the University of Akron. He began working with the Lions initially as a consultant in 1976.

Dr. David Collon

Dr. Collon today is director of the orthopaedic surgery staff for the Center for Athletic Medicine at the Henry Ford Hospital in Detroit. He also serves as vice-chairman for the orthopaedic department. He came back to Ford Hospital from five and one-half years in private practice in Mt. Clemens and Bloomfield Hills (both Detroit suburbs). He had been with the orthopaedic surgery staff at Henry Ford for three years in the mid-'70s, and prior to that, served for six months with Wrightington Hospital in Wigan, England, where he specialized in the hospital's hip center. He also worked further in Europe at Lorenz Bohler Krankenhaus, a hospital in Vienna, Austria.

Dr. Collon, who completed his general surgery resident requirements at Beaumont Hospital in Detroit in 1969 and his orthopaedic surgery residency at Ford Hospital from '72 to mid-'75, was the team physician for the Michigan Panthers of the USFL in 1983-84, and serves the Detroit

continued

Tigers baseball team as an orthopedic consultant, as assignment he first undertook in '84.

He served with the U.S. Navy as a Lieutenant Commander and as General Medical Officer at Camp Pendleton, Calif., from 1970-72. Dr. Collon is a graduate of the University of Michigan (1963) and the Wayne State University School of Medicine (1968).

A Detroit native, he graduated from Cranbrook High School in 1959. SCOUTING STAFF

Ron Hughes

Dirk Dierking

Jim Owens

Jerry Neri

John Trump

Allen Hughes

Ron Hughes continues to assist Joe Bushofsky with various college scouting duties, but his primary responsibility is in the area of pro scouting. Other full-time scouting staff members include John Trump, Dirk Dierking, Jim Owens and Scott McEwen, along with part-time scout Allen Hughes and special assignments scout Jerry Neri.

Ron Hughes, a 1965 graduate of California State College of Pennsylvania, followed the same path to the Lions that Bushofsky took. He returned to his native Pittsburgh, became the head coach at North Catholic High School (for 12 seasons), then went to work for BLESTO for four years. A year ago, Hughes began his acceleration in the Lions' pro scouting program while also handling Detroit area college scouting along with various schools throughout Michigan, Ohio and Illinois. Also like Bushofsky, Ron and his wife Adrianne live in the Detroit metropolitan area (Lathrup Village), near Southfield.

Trump spent seven years with the Chargers as that club's scouting department administrative assistant before coming to the Lions in '85. Prior to his job with San Diego, he had a 25-year association with the Rams that began in 1953 after three years as a high school football and baseball coach in the Los Angeles City School system. Trump serves the Lions as area scout in California and at western U.S. colleges. John and Jean Trump live in Van Nuys, Calif. They have two sons, one of whom, Frank is a scout for the Rams.

Dierking, whose first name is Clarence, came to the Lions in June of '78 to scout the central and southwest colleges, including all colleges in Texas. A native Texan from Brenham, his background includes several years as an area scout for BLESTO. Dierking and his wife Debbie, also are the parents of two sons and live in Plano, Tex., a suburb of Dallas.

Owens enters his third season with the Lions. Prior to his time with Detroit, he scouted colleges in the southeast. Like Dierking, a native Texan (Garland, Tex.) Owens also worked for BLESTO before coming to Detroit. Prior to six years with that scouting combine service, Owens was a high school and college coach at various stops throughout Texas for 21 years. This fall he will cover the eastern U.S. colleges. Owens and his wife Charlotte live in Athens, Tex., with their three children.

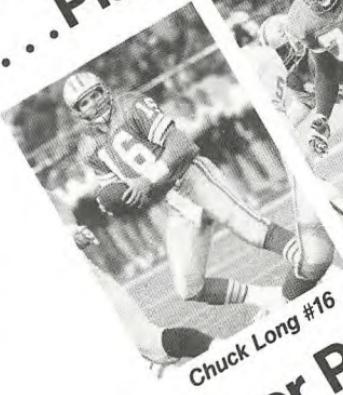

McEwen begins his second season with the Lions, and the East McKeesport, Pa., native will handle scouting along the southeast portion of the U.S. A 1980 graduate of West Liberty State (W. Va.), McEwen spent two seasons with BLESTO before joining the Lions. After a four-year career at West Liberty State, he became a defensive line coach at his alma mater (1980-81), and later coached four years at Duquesne University in Pittsburgh.

Neri handles special assignments from his home base in Los Angeles, where he and his wife Theresa live. Neri, a Villanova grad who has coached in college and pro football (Redskins), has been with the Lions since July of 1969.

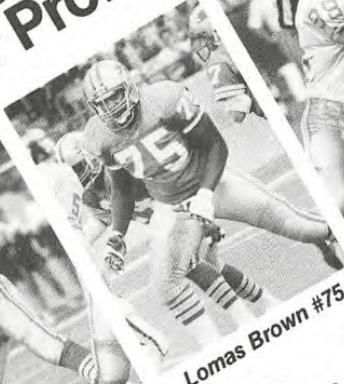

Allen Hughes is the newest addition to the Lions' scouting staff, and he will scout colleges in the Michigan area. The Detroit native (Benedictine H.S.) played three seasons in the USFL — two for the Michigan Panthers ('83 and '84) and a third with the Portland Breakers ('85) — and he was also a 12th-round draft pick by the Steelers in '82. Hughes signed with the Lions in '86 as a free agent, but a broken ankle suffered in the final ('86) preseason game ended his career. He was a four-year starter (at defensive end) and two-time Western Michigan defensive Player of the Year.

JIM ARNOLD

Punter
Vanderbilt
6th Year
HT: 6-3 WT: 211
BORN: 1-31-61
(FA in '86)

ENTERING THIS SEASON: Coming off his best year as a pro in 1987, Jim Arnold is firmly entrenched as the Lions' punter entering the '88 campaign.

1987: Games: Played 11, Started 0.

When you consider Jim Arnold did not even begin the 1987 regular season with the Detroit Lions (or any NFL team for that matter), only then can you appreciate the magnitude of his '87 accomplishments. Arnold lost his punting job to veteran Russell Erxleben in a tight, 1987 training camp battle. But when Erxleben suffered a season-ending injury in the opening game of the '87 campaign, Arnold seized the opportunity and began a Fairy Tale season that ended with a visit to the Pro Bowl...The trip to the Pro Bowl was the first for the sixth-year punter...Arnold ended the season by setting an NFL record with a 39.6 net punting average and was second to Atlanta's Rick Donnelly (44.0) in gross punting average with a 43.6 mark...His 39.6 net average broke Miami's Reggie Roby's record of 38.1 set in 1984...With his selection to the 1988 Pro Bowl, Arnold became the first Lion named since Doug English and William Gay were chosen in 1983...He also established a new Pro Bowl gross punting average record with a 49.6 effort..."When you look for outstanding individual performances from last season, the most outstanding may have been that of Jim Arnold. I don't think there's any question that he had a superb season and certainly earned his trip to the Pro Bowl. Setting a Pro Bowl record certainly proved that he was the best punter in the NFL last season. Jim's NFL record for best net punting average in a season not only is a tribute to him, but also a tribute to (special teams coach) Carl Battershell and every member of the punt coverage unit," said Lions' Head Coach Darryl Rogers...Arnold ended the year with 18 of his 46 season punts (39.1%) traveling 50 yards or more, and 17 of his punts (37.0%) were downed inside the 20-yard line...Only four of his punts (8.7%) resulted in touchbacks...A consensus All-NFL honoree in '87 (Associated Press, Newspaper Enterprise Association and Professional Football Writers Association), Arnold also was named to The Sporting News and Football News' All-Pro teams, and the United Press International and Pro Football Weekly All-NFC squads...And as if the awards ended there, he was also chosen as Pro Football Weekly's winner of the "Golden Toe" Award, given each season to the league's top punter or place-kicker...He also was named Detroit's MVP on special teams by the Lions' Quarterback Club...Arnold averaged 46 yards or more per punt in five games, with a career-best 52.7 yard average (on three punts) against the Rams...He also averaged 48.3 yards (fifth highest single-game average of his career) on six punts against the Bears including his final four punts of 54, 50, 60 and 52 yards.

CAREER: Games: Played 66, Started 0.

After five NFL seasons, Arnold has averaged 42.3 yards per punt (366 punts for 15,474 yards), with only three blocked kicks...Prior to coming to Detroit as a free agent in 1986, he spent three seasons (1983-85) with the Kansas City Chiefs, who drafted him in the fifth round of the '83 draft...He showed no signs of a sophomore jinx in 1984 when he led the NFL in punting (44.9 average)—also fourth best in Chiefs' history) edging Reggie Roby and Rohn Stark (both 44.7) for the title...As a rookie he was somewhat inconsistent and averaged just 39.9, although he placed 21 punts inside the 20-yard line...His '85 average with the Chiefs was 41.2—20th in the NFL...His second, third and fourth-best performances have come against the Raiders (51.0 avg. on eight punts) in an '84 game, 48.8 on eight punts in the second Lions'-Bears' game of '86 and 48.4 yards per kick on seven punts against Denver in an '83 game.

COLLEGE and PERSONAL: A consensus first-team All-America during his senior year at Vanderbilt, Arnold led the nation in punting with a 45.8 yard average and an outstanding net average of 42.1...In one game versus North Carolina as a senior, Arnold set the Vanderbilt single game punting mark with an average of 53.1 yards per punt...Jim's degree is in sociology...He attended Dalton (Ga.) High School, where he participated in five sports...A bachelor, his full name is James Edward Arnold...Had off-season reconstructive surgery on his lower jaw to correct severe overbite and crossbite...Lost 27 pounds prior to mini-camp because of it.

ARNOLD'S CAREER BESTS

- *Most Punts: 11 vs. San Francisco, (11-17-85)
- *Longest Punt: 64 vs. Buffalo, (12-4-83)
- Punting Avg.: 52.7 vs. L.A. Rams, (12-6-87) (3 punts)

STEVE BAACK

Guard
Oregon
5th Year
HT: 6-4 WT: 265
BORN: 11-16-60
(D-3C in '84)

ENTERING THIS SEASON: Perhaps the best athlete among Lions' offensive linemen, 1988 could be pivotal year for Steve Baack as he attempts to establish himself on the Lions' offensive line.

1987: Games: Played 7, Started 0.

After three seasons as a multi-position player (defensive lineman, special teams member or short-yardage tight end), Baack made the fulltime switch to offensive guard during training camp last season...According to Head Coach Darryl Rogers, Baack is the best athlete among the offensive linemen: "He has every physical tool. I think that this is the time that Steve Baack has to produce. It's an opportunity for him and I know he has the ability to prove he belongs in the NFL"...Was placed on injured reserve after suffering a knee injury during a practice session prior to the season opener at Minnesota...Returned to action at Denver and played in seven contests.

CAREER: Games: Played 55, Started 1.

Unless Baack gets the chance again to switch over to the defensive side his career defensive stats will total 25 tackles (19 unassisted), two quarterback sacks and one fumble recovery...The 75th player chosen in the 1984 NFL draft, Baack was Detroit's third third-round draft pick (obtained from the Rams in the David Hill trade)...In a Thanksgiving Day win over the Jets ('85), he recovered a fumble that led to the Lions' first score and later sacked QB Ken O'Brien...His other pro sack came against Green Bay in Week 15 of '85, when he sacked Jim Zorn.

COLLEGE and PERSONAL: A former defensive captain at Oregon, Baack led the Ducks in sacks as a senior ('83) with six and was second in tackles-for-losses with eight...He was voted second-team All-Pac 10 as a senior defensive end and later played in the Blue-Gray All-Star game...Baack holds a degree in psychology from Oregon where he met his wife Jeanette, who was a three-year letterwinner in gymnastics...He and his wife reside in Rochester...A three-sport letterman at Grant Union High School in John Day, Ore., Baack also earned all-state track honors in the discus...Born in Ames, Iowa, his full name is Steven William Baack.

JERRY BALL

Nose Tackle
Southern Methodist
2nd Year
HT: 6-1 WT: 296
BORN: 12-15-64
[D-3 in '87]

ENTERING THIS SEASON: The Lions expect continued improvement from nose tackle Jerry Ball, who started all 12 games last season as a rookie.

1987: Games: Played 12, Started 12.

An All-Rookie selection a year ago (Pro Football Weekly and Professional Football Writers Association), Ball was a pleasant surprise for the Lions...In fact, he had a better season than anticipated...The third-round pick from SMU joined linebacker Dennis Gibson as the only Lions' rookie to start every regular-season game...The two also were the only rookies to open the season as starters..."I think he played very well as a rookie," said Lions' Head Coach Darryl Rogers, "and we are confident he will be an even better nose man this year."...Ball placed ninth among the defensive tackle leaders with 36 total (27 solos)...In his debut at Minnesota, Ball had four tackles (one solo, three assists), and one week later against the Raiders he registered six tackles and one assist...Ball's first sack of the year came against Green Bay when he dropped QB Don Majkowski for an 11-yard loss...As a member of Detroit's special teams, Ball fielded a bounding kickoff against the Redskins and returned it 20 yards.

COLLEGE and PERSONAL: Ball earned consensus first-team All-Southwest Conference honors and also was an All-America pick his senior year at SMU, when he finished second on the team with 95 tackles (59 solos)...Accumulated 296 total tackles over his four-year career...A two-time finalist for the Outland and Lombardi Trophies (as a junior and a senior), Ball's status rose primarily because of an impressive effort at the '87 Senior Bowl...He was an All-State fullback and defensive end at Beaumont (Tx.) Westbrook High, where he rushed for 1,094 yards as a senior...Also an outstanding shot putter in high school, he threw for the second-longest distance in the nation in '82...A cousin of former Lions' standout running back Mel Farr, Ball and his wife Michele have one daughter, Farrin Nichol.

SCOTT BARROWS

Guard/Center
West Virginia
3rd Year
HT: 6-2 WT: 278
BORN: 3-31-63
(FA in '86)

ENTERING THIS SEASON: Heads into training camp as the backup at left guard behind Kevin Glover...Gives Detroit the luxury of another dual-position lineman, who can play guard or center.

1987: Games: Played 12, Started 10.

Perhaps one of the most underrated Lions, Scott Barrows is a solid, heady worker who has played every position along the offensive line...He captured the starting left guard spot during training camp while previous starter Harvey Salem was a free-agent holdout in camp...Barrows saw action in 12 games, and started in 10 contests...He joined LT Lomas Brown in not allowing a sack to Redskins' Darryl Grant and Dexter Manley during the Week 10 contest at Washington...His flexibility allowed him to man the left guard slot against the Rams in the second half when Glover shifted to center for injured Steve Mott...Barrows started the final three games of the year at left guard for Glover, who moved to the right guard spot to replace the injured Keith Dorney.

CAREER: Games: Played 28, Started 14.

In two seasons with the Lions, Barrows has seen action in 28 games and started in 14 of them...Originally signed by the Lions as a free agent in '85, he was released in the next-to-last cut during training camp...After spending time as a metal tradesman in a pipe fabrication plant in Ohio, Barrows and Lions' offensive line coach Bill Muir re-acquainted themselves with each other on Muir's scouting trip to West Virginia University, and the rest is history...As a result of that meeting, Barrows gained another training camp tryout offer and he returned with a greater knowledge of the offense...During that '86 season he saw action at left guard, center and tackle, and also served as Detroit's back-up long snapper.

COLLEGE and PERSONAL: Barrows, a three-year starter at West Virginia, earned All-East honors in '83 and '84...As a senior ('84), he was a member of the first Mountaineer team in 28 years to beat Penn State, 17-14...Barrows was a three-sport MVP and All-Stater (football, basketball and track) at Marietta (Ohio) High School...He and his wife Kelly live year-round in nearby, Waterford, Mich....His full name is Scott Marvin Barrows.

The Detroit Lions' team colors, Honolulu Blue and Silver, were selected more than 50 years ago by then-Lions' Owner George A. Richards.

KARL BERNARD

Running Back-
Kick Returner
SW Louisiana
2nd Year
HT: 5-11 WT: 205
BORN: 10-12-64
(FA in '87)

ENTERING THIS SEASON: Continuing a pattern of overcoming odds, Karl Bernard proved that believing in oneself really does pay off...He will battle for one of the reserve running back spots during the '88 training camp.

1987: Games: Played 8, Started 3.

A longshot rookie free agent who was given very little chance of becoming an NFL player, Bernard turned out to be one of Detroit's biggest surprises of '87...After making the club as a kickoff returner and reserve running back, Bernard showed the ability to produce when given the opportunity..."We found last year that Karl Bernard has the potential to be a pretty decent player. He has yet to prove it over the course of an entire season, but we like his speed and his ability to catch the ball. He did have our best single-game rushing performance with 99 yards against Kansas City," said Head Coach Darryl Rogers...In that contest against the Chiefs (on Thanksgiving Day), Bernard also carried the ball for a team season-high 20 attempts, and scored on an 11-yard run...He finished the year as the Lions' fourth-best rusher with 187 yards on 45 attempts and two touchdowns...Bernard's 4.2 yards-per-carry was the highest (along with Gary Ellerson) among Detroit running backs who gained over 100 yards...He also caught 13 passes for 91 yards (7.0 average) and returned four kickoffs for 54 yards (13.5 average).

COLLEGE and PERSONAL: Bernard had an injury-plagued college career that began at Louisiana State where, ironically, he was battling current Lions' running back Garry James for a spot in the backfield until injuries struck...He later transferred to Southwestern Louisiana where he set a school record during his senior season (1986) for most pass receptions (29 catches for 412 yards) for a running back in the Ragin Cajuns' run-and-shoot offense...He also carried the ball 20 times for 89 yards as a senior...An accomplished singer who has performed the national anthem prior to a Detroit Piston game, Bernard's aunt was a soprano for the Berlin (Germany) Opera...His full name is Karl Gregory Bernard.

CARL BLAND

Wide Receiver
Virginia Union
5th Year
HT: 5-11 WT: 182
BORN: 8-17-61
(FA in '84)

ENTERING THIS SEASON: Competition at the wide receiver position is expected to be stiff during training camp, especially after Lions selected three wide receivers in '88 draft...But Bland's exceptional play on special teams could be deciding factor when it comes time to earn roster spot.

1987: Games: Played 10, Started 0.

Based on the results of a very successful '86 season, many believed Carl Bland had the potential to develop into a steady, NFL receiver, but an unfortunate knee injury suffered during last year's training camp caused him to miss several weeks of the season...Bland was out of action until the Lions' second Green Bay matchup and he responded with one catch for an 11-yard touchdown and one kickoff return for 22 yards...An outstanding all-around special team member, Bland returned two kickoffs for a 22.0 yard average and ended the year with seven special team tackles..."Carl Bland has continually shown improvement throughout his career," said Detroit Head Coach Darryl Rogers. "He has been steady and durable and is an excellent special teams player."

CAREER: Games: Played 37, Started 18.

Bland has 58 receptions for 682 yards (11.8 average) and three touchdowns in addition to 158 yards (eight returns) of kickoff returns...Rode the proverbial roller coaster his first two seasons...After seeing action in three games his first year ('84), Bland was waived twice and re-signed twice in '85...Seized the moment when injuries to Jeff Chadwick and Mark Nichols gave Bland an opportunity to start the final two games of '85...In his first NFL starting assignment he caught seven passes for 107 yards against the Packers...He continued to shine the following week with five receptions for 48 yards against the eventual Super Bowl Champion Chicago Bears...A training camp hamstring injury as a rookie kept him on injured reserve until the final six weeks of the season...Saw only special teams action as a rookie.

COLLEGE and PERSONAL: Bland, who is currently working on completion of his business administration degree at Walsh College (Troy, Mich.) during the off-season, attended college at hometown Virginia Union (Richmond, Va.)...He and his wife Jonnitra currently reside in nearby Rochester Hills, Mich....Very active in religious and com-

LOMAS BROWN

75

Offensive Tackle
Florida
4th Year
HT: 6-4 WT: 282
BORN: 3-30-63
(D-1 in '85)

ENTERING THIS SEASON: Often times a player's individual abilities are overshadowed because of their team's success or lack thereof, and with Detroit's Lomas Brown that, unfortunately, has been the case...However, with another outstanding season like last year, Brown should finally earn that trip to the Pro Bowl.

1987: Games: Played 11, Started 11.

One of the NFL's best offensive tackles, Brown capped off a super season by being named an NFC alternate to the Pro Bowl..."Lomas Brown can be as good as any tackle in the NFL. If we were a winning football team last season, he would have made the Pro Bowl, no doubt about it," said Lions' Head Coach Darryl Rogers... Fortunately for Brown, a second-quarter knee injury in the season opener at Minnesota (while blocking for a 24-yard Eddie Murray field goal attempt) didn't keep him out for the entire season...Because of the injury, he did miss Detroit's next game (against the Raiders) ending a string of 33 consecutive starts since he joined the Lions in 1985...Perhaps his best performance of the year came against the Redskins...Despite a knee injury early in that game (which forced him to leave the game), he shut down Washington's exceptional DE Dexter Manley...Two weeks later against Kansas City,

Brown continued

Brown and the rest of the front line held the Chiefs without a sack...He earned the first tackle of his career in the second Lions'-Vikings' game when he brought down DB Joey Browner, who intercepted a James Jones halfback pass in the end zone and returned it 20 yards.

CAREER: Games: Played 43, Started 43.

Brown's consistency and confidence from his rookie season continued as a second-year pro...He was the only Lions' offensive lineman to start every game in 1985 and 1986...At his left tackle spot, Brown usually meets the opponents' best lineman, and more often than not, he has emerged victorious...A consensus NFL All-Rookie selection in '85, Brown did not figure in Detroit's pre-draft plans as the Lions had intended to select one of two linebackers with its seventh pick in the draft...Both LBs, however, were selected just ahead of the Lions' pick, and Detroit has continued to reap the benefits of Brown's development.

COLLEGE and PERSONAL: A two-time All-America selection at Florida, Brown was selected to the Walter Camp, Kodak, Football Writers, Associated Press, and Sporting News' All-America teams...The three-year starter was also a consensus All-Southeastern Conference pick in '84...Brown played two seasons with current Detroit FB James Jones...Was All-City and All-State as an inside linebacker at Miami (Fla.) Springs High...He is the cousin of San Francisco 49er Guy McIntrye...A popular member of the Lions, Brown is often asked to speak to community and youth groups in the Detroit area...During the off-season he appeared in the nationally-syndicated TV show "Win, Lose or Draw," along with other Detroit-area radio and television celebrities...The charity-sponsored event was shown only in the Detroit area...And yes, his team was victorious...He and his wife Dolores have three daughters, Ashley, Antoinette and Adrienne...His full name is Lomas Brown, Jr.

Inside Linebacker
Wayne State (Mich.)
3rd Year
HT: 6-0 WT: 219
BORN: 11-8-63
(FA in '86)

ENTERING THIS SEASON: The question is, can he do once again?...Last year, for the second straight season, Paul Butcher was selected by his teammates as the special teams MVP...He would certainly like to register a Hat Trick in '88.

1987: Games: Played 12, Started 0.

The guy with the little stature (by NFL standards), tremendous heart and determination continued to prove the skeptics wrong who believed he was undersized for his position...With the majority of his action coming via the special teams, Butcher ended the season with 11 tackles...And based on his efforts, he was named an NFC special teams alternate for the '87 Pro Bowl...Butcher tied LB George Jamison for the most special teams minutes played with 112.7..."Individually, I feel Paul Butcher is an exceptional special teams player," said Detroit Head Coach Darryl Rogers. "He will always have a place on our football team because of what he does on special teams."

CAREER: Games: 24, Started 0.

After two seasons, Butcher may not have eye-popping defensive statistics, but that doesn't minimize his contributions to the Lions...Has 19 total tackles, 17 solos...Joined the squad as a free agent following four days of training camp in '86, but he was a victim of the numbers game a few weeks later and was released...Despite the unfortunate circumstance, Butcher's talents left a lasting impression on the Detroit staff, and after inconsistent efforts by the special teams early in the season, he was asked to return to the club prior to Detroit's Week 5 encounter with Houston...At the time, Butcher was working as a doorman at Galligan's, a downtown Detroit lounge...His full-throttle play drew extra notice from opponents, and isolated TV camera replay coverage...Butcher's finest hour happened in a nationally-televised (CBS-TV) game against the Packers on Thanksgiving Day, when he had three tackles on kickoff and punt coverage and forced two fumbles...As a result of that sterling performance, he earned a spot on the annual "All-Madden Team," selected by CBS color commentator John Madden.

COLLEGE and PERSONAL: A mechanical engineering major from Wayne State (Mich.) University, Butcher is one of three Lions' players (along with Grand Valley State's Jeff Chadwick and Rob Rubick) who played in the Great Lakes Conference (GLIAC), an NAIA/NCAA Division II league...Butcher was a three-time All-GLIAC pick, and was his squad's MVP as a senior ('85)...The two-time WSU captain holds most of Wayne's tackling records, including most career tackles (464), season tackles (147), game tackles (20), career tackles for a loss (22) and he had a string of 29 straight games with ten or more tackles...Butcher began his collegiate career as a walk-on, 178-pound defensive back (as a redshirt freshman in '81), but was moved to linebacker the next year...Was a first-team All-City and All-League selection in football and basketball at Dearborn (Mich.) St. Alphonsus High School...His full name is Paul Martin Butcher.

JEFF CHADWICK

Wide Receiver
Grand Valley State
6th Year
HT: 6-3 WT: 190
BORN: 12-16-60
(FA in '83)

ENTERING THIS SEASON: One of the main goals for Jeff Chadwick in 1988 will be to stay injury-free. When healthy, Chadwick has proven to be an above-average NFL receiver, with the potential to enter the elite class of the NFL...He'll begin training camp as the starter at split end.

1987: Games: Played 8, Started 8.

There was much concern over Chadwick's status prior to last season after an Achilles tendon injury sustained during Week 15 of the '86 season kept him in a cast for nine weeks...It didn't stop him from making it to training camp where he re-established himself as a quality wide-out...Chadwick finished the year as the third-leading receiver on the squad with 30 receptions for 416 yards (13.9 average), despite missing the final four games of the season with a broken wrist suffered against Kansas City...Showed no effects of the '87 work-stoppage by catching seven passes for 81 yards against Green Bay in his first post-strike game...Had another seven-reception (94 yards) performance three weeks later against the eventual Super Bowl Champion Washington Redskins...Five of those seven catches vs. Washington produced first downs...After his injury vs. the Chiefs (he had five receptions in the K.C. game for 50 yards), Chadwick was placed on injured reserve for the remainder of the season..."He has been a good receiver for us when he's healthy," said Detroit Head Coach Darryl Rogers. "Unfortunately, he hasn't always been healthy. Two seasons ago, Jeff had an outstanding year as far as yards receiving yards, (995 yards), average per catch and touchdown receptions, but he missed the last two games of that season with an injury and was hurt in 1987. He has been somewhat injury-prone during his career and actually never has survived an entire season without being injured. If he can stay healthy, Jeff can be a better-than-average receiver in this league. He has deceptive speed and has shown a knack for getting the ball in the end zone."

CAREER: Games: Played 62, Started 35.

Chadwick, who needs only 15 catches to reach the 200 career reception plateau, has 3,046 receiving yards after five seasons (16.5 average) along with 14 touchdowns...The Achilles injury dampened a career-best season for him in '86 when Chadwick set personal marks in season receiving yards (995), receptions (53) and touchdowns (5)...He finished five yards shy of becoming the first Lion to join the 1,000-yard receiving club since Freddie Scott (1,022) turned the trick in '82...Has had five career 100-yard receiving games, including: 1986 games of 139 yards at Philadelphia, 121 against the Packers (Week 13), 106 versus the Bucs (Week 3), and 100 against the Bengals (Week 9); and he had a 112-yard day at Green Bay in '85...He was voted to two All-Rookie teams in '83, and he was the only non-drafted rookie to make the Lions' roster that season...Chadwick also has one rushing attempt during his career — a 12-yard TD run on a reserve handoff from Billy Sims at San Diego ('84).

COLLEGE and PERSONAL: A free agent steal for the Lions in '83, most teams shied away from Chadwick after he was clocked at 4.75 in the 40-yard dash as a college junior... His one-time roommate and then Lions' rookie tight end Rob Rubick insisted to team officials that Chadwick was faster than his junior time indicated... Convinced, Lions' officials visited Chadwick during his senior year and timed him under 4.5 seconds... He set Grand Valley records for receptions (42), yards (894) and TDs (13) during his senior year ('82) and also had career marks in yards (1,512) and TD receptions (19)... Many of those records were previously held by Rubick... Along with Rubick and linebacker Paul Butcher, Chadwick is the third Detroit player to come out of the Great Lakes Conference, an NAIA/NCAA Division II league in Michigan... He joins quarterback Eric Hippie as co-chairman of the Lions' chapter of the "65 Roses Club," a fund-raising wing of the Cystic Fibrosis Foundation... Was selected as the '86 Lion of the Year by the Michigan March of Dimes... He and his wife Karen are the proud parents of Jeffrey James Chadwick, who was born Dec. 30 of last year... His full name is Jeffrey Allan Chadwick.

Safety
 Hawaii
 3rd Year
 HT: 6-0 WT: 194
 BORN: 12-19-61
 (FA in '87)

ENTERING THIS SEASON: The acquisition of free agent Raphael Cherry during last year's player strike should continue to pay dividends for the Lions, especially if Devon Mitchell is not able to return to his 1986 form... Cherry was considered the most improved Lions' defensive back at the end of last season.

1987: Games: Played 10, Started 10.

After joining the Lions on Oct. 19, Cherry became a starter one week later against the Packers and responded with five tackles... When Detroit met his old team,

Washington Redskins, Cherry really rose to the occasion by leading the Lions with 10 total tackles...His consistent play continued over the remainder of the season, and in the season finale versus the Falcons, Cherry got his first pass interception since '85 when he picked off a Chris Miller attempt (return of two yards)..."Raphel really came on for us near the end of the '87 season. If he continues to work hard and improve, he will definitely help our football team," Lions' Head Coach Darryl Rogers said.

CAREER: Games: Played 26, Started 15.

Originally a fifth-round draft pick of the Redskins in 1985, Cherry was also selected in the first round by the USFL Houston Gamblers (sixth player overall chosen) that year...A very talented athlete, Cherry saw...In addition, Cherry caught one pass for 11 yards, returned four punts for 22 yards and one kickoff for nine yards...His top special teams day came against the Eagles (nine hits)...He was released by the Redskins during training camp in '86 and later picked up by the San Francisco 49ers after the regular season (same year), but he was released by the 49ers in August '87.

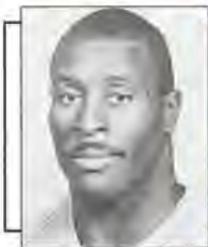

COLLEGE and PERSONAL: A second-team All-Western Athletic Conference quarterback at Hawaii as a senior, Cherry racked up superb numbers in his final season with the Rainbows...He completed 143 of 295 passes for 2,055 yards and six touchdowns in '84...Cherry concluded his career holding 29 passing and total offense records for Hawaii...His best game as a passer came against Wyoming, as he completed 22-of-29 attempts for 332 yards and two TDs...An outstanding prepster at Los Angeles' (CA) Washington High, where his TD strikes were called "Cherry Bombs"...He is a cousin to Kansas City Pro Bowler Deron Cherry...His full name is Raphel Jerome Cherry.

MICHAEL COFER

Outside Linebacker
Tennessee
6th Year
HT: 6-5 WT: 245
BORN: 4-7-60
(D-3 in '83)

ENTERING THIS SEASON: An all-out effort player who excels at rushing the passer, Michael Cofer led the Lions in sacks a year ago, and he should be among the team, and possibly the league leaders in '88...He often lines up in the down position to rush the passer...With Cofer on one side and Jimmy Williams on the other, the duo gives the Lions one of the NFC's strongest pair of bookend linebackers.

1987: Games: Played: 11, Started 11.

Cofer's exceptional play last year did not go unnoticed as he earned NFC alternate status for the '88 Pro Bowl...He ended the season with 43 tackles (37 solos) and a team-leading 8.5 sacks (for 78 yards)...Was off to a quick start prior to the NFL strike, with six tackles in the season-opener (vs. Minnesota) and five tackles the next week against the Raiders...Upon the return of the veterans, Cofer registered a sack in the first game back against Green Bay...He missed Detroit's next game (with Broncos) because of a hip injury suffered against the Packers...In the Lions' Week 9 victory over Dallas, Cofer led the defensive charge with three solo tackles including two sacks of Cowboy quarterback Danny White...After a five-tackle effort and a fumble recovery against the Redskins (Week 10), he posted a career-best game against Chicago with 3.5 sacks for 31.5 yards including a 15-yard sack of Bears' rookie quarterback Jim Harbaugh on the #1 draft choice's first NFL pass play...His strong second-half surge continued in Week 12 (vs. K.C.), when he registered five tackles.

CAREER: Games: Played 66, Started 56.

An ultimate-effort player, Cofer has a total of 295 tackles (215 solos) over his career with the Lions...He has averaged eight sacks and two fumble recoveries over the last two seasons...Cofer's career began as a defensive end, and in his first pro start (in a Monday Night national TV game) he had one sack against the N.Y. Giants...His 107 total and 75 solo tackles led all Lions' defensive linemen in '84...When the current coaching staff took over (and went to a "34" defense) Cofer was switched to outside linebacker prior to the '85 season...Extremely quick, he has been clocked under 4.5 in the 40-yard dash.

COLLEGE and PERSONAL: Cofer was a first-team All-Southeastern Conference and honorable mention All-America as a senior at Tennessee ('82)...The four-year letterman and defensive captain earned his degree in elementary education...Once an aspiring actor, Cofer appeared in two stage plays, and he also hosted several mock performances of "Saturday Night Live" in college...Does imitations of famous actors and also of some of his teammates...Prepped at Rule High School in Knoxville, where he was an All-America in football and All-State in basketball...Full name is Michael Lynn Cofer.

KEITH DORNEY

Guard-Tackle
Penn State
10th Year
HT: 6-5 WT: 280
BORN: 12-3-57
(D-1 in '79)

ENTERING THIS SEASON: Despite battling injuries throughout his career, Keith Dorney remains one of Detroit's mainstays along the offensive line...A very intense and dedicated player who often plays above his injuries, the former Pro Bowl performer has started 110 of the 111 games he's appeared in.

1987: Games: Played 5, Started 5.

Dorney, the offensive co-captain along with FB James Jones, started five games last season but finished the year on injured reserve...A couple of the nagging problems — elbow and knee injuries — caused him to miss six games...Perhaps his best game of the season came against Kansas City, when Dorney, who started at right guard, and the rest of the offensive line did not allow a sack...Two weeks later (Week 14) he aggravated a knee and missed the entire second half against Tampa Bay (second meeting)...Dorney was placed on injured reserve Dec. 17.

CAREER: Games: Played 111, Started 110.

The No. 1 pick of the Lions in the '79 draft, Dorney was the first offensive lineman selected...He was named to the Pro Football Writers' All-Rookie team that season...His unfortunate battle with injuries began his second year when he missed seven games with a serious knee injury, which required surgery, but incredibly, Dorney still returned to action in the final three games...In '81 he was named All-NFC first team offensive tackle by United Press International following an outstanding year...Became the Lions' offensive captain (a position he's held most of his career) in 1982 and responded with a performance that earned him his first Pro Bowl selection...A second straight trip to the Pro Bowl was lost when he suffered a back injury in the weight room and missed three weeks (games 5, 6, and 7) in '83...But once again he made a quick and seemingly impossible recovery and started the final eight games of the season and the playoff loss to San Francisco that year...He appeared well on his way to a second Pro Bowl trip during the '85 season, but when Dorney, always the consummate

"team player" agreed to switch positions (from tackle to guard) because of injuries to other members of the Lions' offensive line, it probably cost him that Pro Bowl invitation...Dorney played the final eight weeks of that '85 season with a broken big toe, and following the season was named for the second time to UPI's All-NFC first team (as a tackle)...He has endured eight orthopedic operations since entering the NFL...The only game he didn't start was the Week 13 contest his second season when he was coming back from knee surgery...For the third time in his career (1986), Dorney suffered another knee injury—"severe degenerative arthritis," to be exact—and initial reports believed the injury would end his career—but as before, he proved everyone wrong by returning after the minimum four weeks on injured reserve...His exemplary performance was rewarded by his teammates, who named Dorney the Lions' Offensive Most Valuable Player (an award he shared with FB James Jones)...He also received the prestigious Ed Block Memorial Courage Award, presently annually to each of the 28 NFL clubs by the East Side Athletic Club of Baltimore...Dorney also was honored by the Miller Brewing Company as the Lions' 1986 Miller Lite Offensive Lineman of the Year.

COLLEGE and PERSONAL: Picked by many as the nation's best collegiate offensive lineman his senior year ('78), Dorney also was considered to be the No. 1 overall pick of the entire draft by the Washington Post (he was selected by the Lions with the first round's 10th pick)...Helped Penn State to a No. 1 ranking as a senior until the Nittany Lions lost to Alabama in the Sugar Bowl...An All-America as a junior, Dorney was named to ten different first-team All-America teams his senior year...In addition, he was honored as an Academic All-America and finished college with a 3.3 grade point average and a degree in business administration...Began his collegiate career as a blocking tight end and started the 1975 Sugar Bowl as a freshman at that position...As a sophomore, he started 12 games at center before switching to tackle...A two-sport (football and basketball) All-America at Emmaus (Pa.) High School, Dorney also captained both teams...Does real estate work in San Juan Capistrano, Calif., where he resides in the off-season with wife Katherine and their new baby boy, Carlton, who was born this past May...His full name is Keith Robert Dorney.

HT: 5-11 WT: 220
BORN: 7-17-63
(FA in '87)

ENTERING THIS SEASON: Considered the best short-yardage runner on the squad, Gary Ellerson's status for '88 was uncertain prior to training camp...This past April a blood clot traveled through his heart and lodged in his lung...Ellerson missed the team's three-day mini-camp in May, and his condition will be monitored by team doctors before he is allowed to return to action...Third on the depth chart at halfback.

1987: Games: Played 8, Started 2.

A valuable commodity for the Lions last season, Ellerson saw action at both running back positions...He ended the season as the third-leading rusher with 196 yards on 47 attempts and three TDs...His 4.2 yards-per-carry average was tops among the backs (along with Karl Bernard)...Ellerson also gained 71 yards on seven receptions and scored once...Was released off injured reserve by the Packers during the pre-season...He signed as a free agent with Detroit on Oct. 15, and started against the Seahawks three days later in Week 6...Quickly established himself by leading all rushers in that contest with 61 yards on 16 carries and he also caught one pass for nine yards...Ellerson's value soared when he started for injured FB James Jones and responded with 43 rushing yards a on five carries (including a game-high 33-yard rush — the longest run from scrimmage in '87 for a Lions' back) and three receptions for 16 yards and one TD (10 yards)...In Detroit's 20-10 win over Tampa Bay, he scored a key fourth quarter touchdown on a six-yard run...In the season finale (vs. Atlanta), Ellerson replaced the injured Garry James for most of the game and responded with career highs in rushing yards (73 yards) and rushing TDs (two, from 8 and 2 yards)...His 23-yard reception on a third-down play kept alive Detroit's first scoring drive against the Falcons.

CAREER: Games: Played 39, Started 8.

Ellerson was a seventh-round draft choice of the Packers in the 1985 NFL draft...He rushed for 205 yards on 32 carries (6.4 average) and two TDs as a rookie...Paced Green Bay in rushing in each of the last two games of '85...He was a thorn in the side of his present club after rushing for 112 yards on 14 attempts and one TD in two Packer victories over the Lions his first year...A promising sophomore season was negated after Ellerson suffered several nagging injuries...Started six games overall (appeared in 16), and closed out the season as the Packers' No. 4 rusher with 287 yards in 90 carries and three TDs...Also caught 12 passes for 130 yards and averaged 22.0 yards on seven kickoff returns.

COLLEGE and PERSONAL: Gained 1,053 yards in three seasons at Wisconsin (4.8 average), with 777 coming as a junior ('83)...He also scored 11 touchdowns that season...Ellerson missed his final year (1984) because of scholastic difficulties...He led the Big Ten in kickoff returns in 1982 with a 24.3 average on 15 runbacks...Began his Badger career at split end...an All-Georgia selection as a senior at Monroe High School (Albany, Ga.)...His full name is Gary Tobius Ellerson.

KEITH FERGUSON

Defensive End
Ohio State
8th Year
HT: 6-5 WT: 260
BORN: 4-3-59
(Waivers in '85)

ENTERING THIS SEASON: Since joining the Lions, Keith Ferguson has been one of Detroit's top sack producers...A solid, experienced lineman who can play both end positions, Ferguson gives the Lions key veteran leadership on otherwise young defensive line.

1987: Games: Played 12, Started 9.

Despite losing his starting job in training camp when Eric Williams was switched back to his natural defensive end position from nose tackle, Ferguson flexibility allowed him the opportunity to see action at both end positions...Registered 30 total tackles on the year with one fumble recovery...Was second on the squad in sacks (6) and sack yardage (64)...He replaced the injured Williams in the starting lineup at left end against Denver and the following week (vs. Dallas) Ferguson started in place of William Gay at right end...His consistent efforts started to shine during a three-game stretch (vs. Washington, Chicago and Kansas City), when he made 11 total tackles, 4.5 sacks, forced a fumble and recovered one fumble...He also had six tackles and a forced fumble on a 20-yard sack of Minnesota QB Wade Wilson during Week 15.

CAREER: Games: Played 100, Started 76.

Ferguson has appeared in 100 games over his career and he has accumulated 294 total tackles (200 solos), 39.5 sacks and seven fumble recoveries...He was selected by his Lions teammates as the 1986 Most Valuable Defensive player after leading the team in sacks with 9.5 (for 73 yards in losses)...During the '85 season Ferguson had 50 tackles (42 solos) and had his first career interception (against Houston)...He would have scored on the seven-yard return if he had not fumbled the interception out of the end zone, and as a result, the Oilers gained possession on their 20-yard line...Ferguson, who came to Detroit via waivers following his release from San Diego (11-21-85), started the final four games of '85 and finished with 2.5 sacks along with 11 tackles and a pair of forced fumbles...His 55 tackles in '83 is career-high...During his years with the Chargers he racked up 21.5 sacks for 165 yards in losses...Once a 231-pound linebacker during his early San Diego days, Ferguson bulked up to his present 260 pounds and became a full-time starter at defensive end in his second pro season ('82)...He had a string of 67 straight NFL games snapped in Week 11 in Denver in '85 and was waived by the Chargers after that contest...A knee injury following seven games that season eventually cost him his starting position...A fifth-round pick by San Diego in '81, he has also seen action as a starter at defensive tackle (as a rookie) against Baltimore...Ferguson had three sacks versus the Colts that day.

COLLEGE and PERSONAL: Ferguson, who began his Ohio State career as an offensive tackle under Woody Hayes, was moved to defensive end for his final two seasons by then Head Coach Earle Bruce...He had 21 sacks in '79-80, and as a senior ('80) he was an honorable mention All-America as a defensive end at OSU and team co-captain...Ferguson was one of Florida's most highly-touted athletes in 1976 when

DUANE GALLOWAY

Cornerback
Arizona State
3rd Year
HT: 5-8 WT: 181
BORN: 11-7-61
(FA in '85)

ENTERING THIS SEASON: It's always been a case of "Against All Odds" for the mighty-mite third-year cornerback...And for each of the past three seasons the undersized Galloway has conquered the odds and made the Lions roster...1988 will be no different, but people are learning not to bet against Galloway....He enters training camp as the backup to Bobby Watkins at left corner.

1987: Games: Played 10, Started 7.

Detroit Head Coach Darryl Rogers has said of Galloway, "On paper, Gallo shouldn't be playing in the NFL, but you can't judge his ability or his heart on paper. He plays hard and when healthy, he's one of the finest defensive backs we have."...That was evident in the season opener against Minnesota, when Galloway replaced injured Watkins and intercepted two Wade Wilson passes in the first half with returns of 30 and 14 yards...Continued his fine play the next week (against the Raiders) by making four solo tackles and a team-high three pass deflections, including stripping one from Raider TE Todd Christensen — who is seven inches taller and 50 pounds heavier than Galloway...After his return following the NFL work-stoppage, Galloway put together a three-game string of top efforts — against Green Bay (Week 7) he made five tackles despite being shaken up and forced from the game early in the contest...Led Detroit's secondary with seven tackles and one pass deflection against Denver (Week 8)...And concluded that stretch with another seven-tackle performance vs. Dallas...He also added an interception against the Cowboys...Galloway had 34 total tackles (31 solos) last season and finished second in interceptions (behind James Griffin) with three for 46 yards in returns...Was selected the Lions' recipient of the Ed Block Memorial Courage Award, which annually recognizes men of courage in the NFL.

CAREER: Games: Played 28, Started 19.

Galloway has seven interceptions for 104 yards over his three-year career...He also has 109 total tackles (96 solos) and two fumble recoveries...Selected by the Los Angeles Express in the 19th round of the 1983 (Jan.) USFL draft, Galloway was cut during training camp and signed with the CFL's Saskatchewan Roughriders in March '83...He was released by Saskatchewan that June, re-signed in July and played in six games, before being released again in August...He was signed by the Indianapolis Colts (5-15-84) and spent four weeks on their injured reserve that fall before being waived from reserve (9-18-84)...The Lions signed him on May 9, 1985...Replaced an injured Bruce McNorton in the '85 season-opener at Atlanta and was the Lions' best defender on the field...He registered eight tackles and two passes defensed before disaster struck — as Galloway came up to force a sweep, he broke his arm attempting to tackle Falcon running back Gerald Riggs...The injury shelved Galloway for the rest of the '85 season...Galloway and Riggs, former college teammates at Arizona State, would meet again in the last game of the '86 season...Guess what? Same play, same result...Incredibly, lightning did strike twice when Galloway came up to force another Riggs' sweep and after the collision Galloway broke the same arm in the same place...An intense hitter who excels at run support, Galloway posted 66 total tackles (57 solos) in '86...He also had four interceptions (58 return yards) and recovered one fumble.

COLLEGE and PERSONAL: A product of Los Angeles' famed Crenshaw High, Galloway began his collegiate career at Santa Monica Junior College, where he earned JUCO All-America honors at cornerback in '80...He enrolled at Arizona State (Darryl Rogers was head coach) in '81 and was a two-year starter in the secondary...He was coached at ASU by present Lions' assistant Willie Shaw...Galloway was a second team All-Pac 10 member as a senior in '82...Duane Keith Galloway makes his off-season home in Culver City, Calif.

DENNIS GIBSON

Inside Linebacker
Iowa State
2nd Year
HT: 6-2 WT: 240
BORN: 2-8-64
(D-8 in '87)

ENTERING THIS SEASON: After an exceptional rookie season, Dennis Gibson is expected to be a force in the middle for the Lions for years to come...Prior to 1987, he had never played an inside linebacker position...All he did was have as productive a rookie season as any first-year player in the NFL.

1987: Games: Played 12, Started 12.

Easily one of the NFL's top rookie performers, Gibson became the first Lions' rookie to lead the club in tackles (82 total, 68 solos) since defensive stats have been recorded...He also was the first linebacker to pace the club in that category since the 1983 season..."In my opinion, Dennis Gibson, probably had as fine a season as you could ever expect from a rookie," said Lions' Head Coach Darryl Rogers. "In fact, if he was our No. 1 draft choice last season, and played the same way he did, everyone would be telling us what an exceptional draft we had in 1987. I don't think any rookie defensive player had the stats last season that Dennis had for us. Not only did he lead our team in tackles, but he played a position (inside linebacker) that he didn't play in college, when he was used as an outside backer. I believe he is going to get better and better and he will be a very fine player for years to come."...After leading the Lions in tackles during the preseason, Gibson opened the season as one of two rookies (along with Jerry Ball) to earn a regular-season starting spot...In his first NFL game (season opener at Minnesota), he led Detroit with 11 tackles (seven solos), and had the team's only sack of the day (for eight yards)...Excelled against the Cowboys in Detroit's 27-17 win, with six solos, a pass interception (five-yard return) and a forced fumble...He really came on down the stretch, leading the squad in tackles in three of the last four games (12 tackles against the Rams, 11 vs. Minnesota (second meeting) and 11 at Atlanta...Named to Football Digest's Rookie All-Star team.

COLLEGE and PERSONAL: Gibson spent most of his collegiate career at outside linebacker for the Cyclones, and the four-year letterman was named the team's Defensive MVP his junior and senior years ('85 & '86)...Used most on special teams as a freshman ('83), Gibson owned the starting OLB position his final three seasons...In 1986 he was selected to the second team All-Big Eight team and played in the Blue-Gray and Senior Bowl games...Was a second-team All-State linebacker at Ankeny (Iowa) High School, where he led team to Iowa State playoffs as a senior with 108 tackles, 12 sacks and two blocked punts...An engineering major at ISU, Gibson also has a 35-inch vertical jump. His full name is Dennis Michael Gibson.

KEVIN GLOVER

Center-Guard
Maryland
4th Year
HT: 6-2 WT: 267
BORN: 6-17-63
(D-2 in '85)

ENTERING THIS SEASON: Hopes to duplicate his fine 1987 season, when, for the first time in his pro career, Kevin Glover went through a full season without suffering an injury. Although he is listed as the starter at left guard, Glover also may get a look at center — the position he played in college...Signed a new multi-year contract with the Lions this spring.

1987: Games: Played 12, Started 9.

Last year was Kevin Glover's NFL "coming out" party if you will...Easily his best year, Glover proved he not only can play in the NFL, but also that he can start and play well...When you think of Glover, his versatility comes to mind...After starting in only one game prior to '87, he drew the starting nod at three positions last year: right guard, left guard and center...Also saw a great deal of action on special teams...Even returned one kickoff for 19 yards (vs. Rams)...Missed a lineman's dream to score in the season opener (vs. Minnesota) when he caught a TD pass but he failed to report on that play as an eligible receiver — therefore his 3-yard TD catch was nullified by the penalty...(Glover had initially reported on play just before TD pass, but you must report prior to each play you line up as eligible receiver)...Glover gained his first start since an '86 meeting with the Browns when he manned the right guard spot against the Broncos...In his second start, he joined an offensive line effort that did not allow a sack in Detroit's win over Dallas...One of the team's most improved players..."Kevin Glover really did a fine job for us last year," Lions' Head Coach Darryl Rogers said. "If he continues to improve, he'll be a fine NFL player for years to come."

CAREER: Games: Played 26, Started 10.

Detroit's second-round selection of the '85 draft, Glover saw limited action his rookie year, playing the fewest amount of minutes (43) of any Lion who appeared in ten or more games...A knee injury in Week 11 of that season ended his rookie year...Another knee injury the following year — which occurred during his first starting assignment (at Cleveland) — caused Glover to miss 11 weeks of the season (from Week 4 to Week 16).

COLLEGE and PERSONAL: The leader of Maryland's powerful offensive line, Glover was a three-year starter for the Terrapins...He played offensive tackle his sophomore year before switching to center for his final two years...As a senior co-captain, Glover was named first-team All-America by The Sporting News...He received a game ball as a senior for his play against William Perry and the Clemson Tigers when Maryland rolled up 406 yards rushing and 571 total offensive yards in a 41-23 rout of the Tigers that year...Also started at center in both the Hula and Senior Bowls following his senior year...His roommate at the Senior Bowl was Detroit No. 1 '85 draft pick Lomas Brown...An All-State honoree at Largo (Md.) High School, Glover also earned letters in basketball, wrestling and track and field...A recreation major, his full name is Kevin Bernard Glover.

CURTIS GREEN

Defensive End
Nose Tackle
Alabama State
8th Year
HT: 6-3 WT: 265
BORN: 6-3-57
(D-2 in '81)

ENTERING THIS SEASON: Curtis Green gives the Lions a quality and proven backup at defensive end...Used extensively on special teams and in the Lions' four-man front (inside at DT) in pass-rush situations...He is listed on the training camp depth chart behind Eric Williams at left end.

1987: Games: Played 12, Started 0.

Despite the lowest number of total tackles in his Detroit career (14), Green finished the season as the club's fourth-best pass rusher with 2.5 sacks for 27 yards...He appeared in 12 games, but for the first time in his career, Green did not draw a starting assignment...Saw extensive action against the Broncos, as the Lions often shifted into four-man fronts in order to stop Denver QB John Elway...He had four tackles in that game...Recorded six tackles (five solos) and a shared sack (with Michael Cofer) of Jim McMahon against Bears.

CAREER: Games: Played 96, Started 46.

After seven seasons of play, Green has 280 total tackles (205 solos) and 30.5 sacks...A second-round draft choice in '81, Green started five games and played in 14 and was named to the Pro Football Writers' All-Rookie team after ending the year with 42 total tackles and three sacks...Hampered most of the '82 season with an ankle injury, he only saw action in seven games...A starter in all 16 games in '83, his 5.5 sacks ranked third on the team...Posted a career-high eight sacks in '84, and for the second straight season, Green registered 71 tackles (and a career-high 52 solos)...With a defensive philosophy change in '85 (from the tradition four-man front to the 3-4 alignment), he was initially relegated to a reserve role...By season's end, though, he was back into the starting lineup due to injuries and finished second on the team in sacks with seven...Minor injuries slowed his production in '86, but Green played in all 16 games and finished fourth on the team with 3.5 sacks (for 24 yards in losses).

COLLEGE and PERSONAL: The MVP in the 1980 Sheridan Black All-Star Game, Green also played in the Blue-Grey Classic...A three-year starter at Alabama State, he recorded 252 tackles and 20 sacks during his college career...The physical education major was named team MVP his senior year...A prep standout (football and basketball) at Shanks High School in Quincy, Fla., Green played against current teammate Keith Ferguson in a high school all-star football game...He and his wife Patricia have two children: Carlos Donald and Chantel Dionne, and they live in Montgomery, Ala., during the offseason...His full name is Curtis Green.

Safety
 Middle Tennessee State
 6th Year
 HT: 6-2 WT: 197
 BORN: 9-7-61
 (FA in '86)

ENTERING THIS SEASON: James Griffin had a banner season as the Lions' starting strong safety in '87, but the Lions could not pass up the opportunity to select Bennie Blades as their first choice in this year's draft...Griffin has played both safety positions for the Lions, so his versatility is a plus.

1987: Games: Played 12, Started 12.

When Detroit acquired Griffin as a free agent two years ago, the Lions basically took out an insurance policy for the defensive backfield...Well, that policy really paid big dividends last season...He had his best season as a professional in '87 when he registered the NFL's second-highest number of interceptions with six (behind Washington's Barry Wilburn, who had nine), and finished with a career-high 56 total tackles (39 solos)...His six thefts were the most by a Lion since Bobby Watkins had the same number in '84, and Jimmy Allen had nine in '81...His importance to the team was evident after regular FS Devon Mitchell suffered a severe knee injury in the preseason finale at Philadelphia...He was switched to that position after earning the starting nod at strong safety...In his first start ever for the Lions (vs. Minnesota), Griffin intercepted QB Wade Wilson's first pass attempt and returned it 11 yards...In Week 2 at the Raiders, he made six tackles and made a diving pass interception of a Rusty Hilger pass and returned it 29 yards...After the NFL work stoppage Griffin returned to his strong safety position (where he remained for the rest of the year) against Green Bay and responded with six tackles, a sack, a forced fumble and one interception (with a return of 29 yards)...His outstanding play continued in Week 8 against the Cowboys, when he had seven tackles and two fourth-quarter interceptions — the last assuring the Lions' win...Ended the year with the team's second-most overall minutes played with 362.5, while leading the defensive unit with 341.1 minutes of action.

CAREER: Games: Played 76, Started 23.

roster, Griffin has 17 career interceptions (386 return yards) and 152 total tackles...Three of his interceptions have been returned for touchdowns (all with the Bengals)...His longest was 57 yards versus Buffalo in '84...He earned AFC Defensive Player of the Week honors in a 35-30 Bengals' win over the Giants in '85, when he intercepted two passes (one for a TD) and recovered an onside kick...Grabbed a career-high seven interceptions that season for 116 yards...Provided instant help for the Lions ('86), opening the first game of the season in Detroit's nickel and dime packages and eventually working in as the team's regular nickel back...He had two interceptions, two sacks, and 15 total tackles along with one forced fumble and six passes defensed...Has the knack for making big plays.

COLLEGE and PERSONAL: James combined with his brother Don (a starting CB for the 49ers) to register 11 pass interceptions in 1987...Both played at Middle Tennessee State in Murfreesboro, TN...Originally a seventh-round selection of the Bengals in '83, Griffin was the 193rd player chosen...His brother was taken in the sixth-round by San Francisco (the 162nd player picked)...James earned first-team All-Ohio Valley honors as a junior and senior...His full name is James Victor Griffin.

Tight End
Texas A&I
13th Year
HT: 6-2 WT: 255
BORN: 1-1-54
(FA in '88)

ENTERING THIS SEASON: Needing immediate and valuable help at the tight end position, the Lions' signed free agent David Hill to his second stint with the club (Apr. 19)...“Our tight end situation has not been stable since David Hill left,” said Detroit Head Coach Darryl Rogers. “David has the experience and durability to help us, and he has proven over the past 12 seasons to be an outstanding blocker which has to be a plus for our running game. He hasn't gotten many chances to catch the ball over the past few years, but we think he can still be a threat as a receiver, too."...Hill rejoins the Lions ranked sixth on the all-time Detroit pass receiving list with 245 pass receptions and in the top ten among Lions in receiving yards with 3,054.

CAREER: Games: Played 176, Started 149.

1987: Games: Played 12, Started 12.

1983-87 (with Rams): Hill was traded to the Rams by the Lions in '83 for a fourth-round draft choice ('84) and his role with the Rams became more of a blocking specialist — more often than not for Pro Bowler Eric Dickerson — over his last three years with the team...He missed only one regular-season start for the Rams over five seasons...He concluded his Los Angeles career with 113 receptions for 1,158 yards and five TDs...His best season with the Rams came in '84 when he grabbed 31 receptions for 300 yards and one score...Hill had five catches in a game on two occasions (Cincinnati and Green Bay) in '84.

1976-82 (with Lions): Detroit's second-round pick from Texas A&I in '76, Hill played in 100 games for the Lions over seven years...He became of the NFL's finest tight ends and earned Pro Bowl berths following the '78 and '79 seasons...He still holds the club's record for most receptions by a tight end with 53 catches for a personal-high 633 yards in '78...Hill was an All-Rookie choice in '76 when he caught 19 passes (five for touchdowns).

COLLEGE and PERSONAL: An All-American at Texas A&I, Hill caught 21 touchdown passes during his career...He also played in the East-West Shrine Game, All-American Bowl and the Japan Bowl...The journalism major is the brother of ABC-TV and Los Angeles-based sportscaster Jim Hill...He is also the first cousin of former Ram teammate Gary Green...Hill attended Highland High School in San Antonio...He and his wife, Ann, are residents of Yorba Linda, Calif., and they have two sons, Aaron and Adam Mykal...His full name is David Hill.

ERIC HIPPLE

Quarterback
Utah State
8th Year
HT: 6-2 WT: 198
BORN: 9-16-57
(0-4 in '80)

ENTERING THIS SEASON and 1987: The Lions welcome the return of veteran quarterback Eric Hipple, who missed all of last season with an injury...Hipple heads into training camp as the backup, but Lions' coach Darryl Rogers indicates the job could be Hipple's if he beats incumbent Chuck Long out..."One of the guys that we planned to have as a backup or possibly the starter in 1987 was Eric Hipple," Rogers said, "but Eric dislocated his thumb and missed the entire season. He never even got healthy enough late in the season to help us. But he is healthy now and that's a plus this season. Eric has had some success in the NFL and we can definitely win if the situation arises where Hipple is our quarterback."...The injury, which required surgery, occurred during an '87 training camp practice and Hipple was placed on injured reserve after the Lions' roster had been trimmed to 45 (on 9-8-87)...Hipple had spent the entire off-season rehabilitating from elbow surgery and was in top shape when the thumb injury happened...Games: Played 0, Started 0.

CAREER: Games: Played 96, Started 56.

The fourth all-time leader in career passing yardage (10,458) in Detroit history, Hipple needs 1,428 yards to surpass Gary Danielson and move into third place...He is also one of only four Lions' signal-callers to pass for more than 10,000 yards...After spending most of his rookie season ('80) as the holder to placekicker Eddie Murray, Hipple was named Detroit's offensive MVP the following year ('81) after leading the Lions to six wins in their last ten games...He paced all NFL quarterbacks that season with seven rushing TDs...In his first pro start (also in '81), Hipple passed for a career-high 336 yards and four TDs, in addition to rushing for two scores as the Lions romped to a 48-17 win over the Chicago Bears in front of a capacity Silverdome crowd and a Monday Night Television audience...His first TD pass (in that victory) was a two-yarder to Rick Kane, while his fourth (and final) scoring strike of the evening covered 94 yards to Leonard Thompson, which still ranks as the third longest in Detroit history...His up-and-down career saw him replaced as the Lions' starter after four games of the '82 season only to recaptured the job in '83 and lead the squad to the NFC Central Division title (Detroit's first since the 1957 NFL Championship)...He missed the post-'83 season playoff game against the 49ers due to a knee injury, but he did connect on 22-of-38 passes for 298 yards and one TD in an '82 playoff loss to the Redskins...Injuries and a fall from favor limited Hipple to just one start in '84, but he bounced back the next year to start 15-of-16 games...He responded in 1985 with career highs in completions (223), attempts (406), passing yards (2,952), touchdowns (17) and interceptions (18)...Hipple racked up impressive stats in the first 10 games of '86 before a persistent elbow injury forced him to the sideline for the remainder of the season...The mishap reduced his role to holder on placements for the final six games...He concluded the season as the NFC's third-rated passer, behind Minnesota's Tommy Kramer and San Francisco's Joe Montana, and his 63% completion percentage topped the entire league...Despite suffering a broken nose in the Week 3 game against Tampa Bay, Hipple established the Lions' single-game mark with 31 pass completions, and one week later upped that figure to 33 at Cleveland...In a Week 6 win at Green Bay, Hippie was a sizzling 15-of-19 from the field for a career-best 79% completion percentage.

COLLEGE and PERSONAL: A four-year starter at Utah State, Hippie led the Aggies to two Pacific Coast Athletic Association championships ('78 and '79)...The Downey, Calif., native was the nation's sixth-best passer and tops in the PCAA with 1,924 yards passing as a senior ('79), and concluded his career with 6,073 yards on 459-of-850 passing and 34 TDs...Hippie is the father of two children, Erica and Jeffrey...He makes his off-season home in Dana Point, Calif....Spent a good deal of this past off-season in Michigan, working out daily at the Silverdome...His full name is Eric Ellsworth Hippie.

GARRY JAMES

Running Back
Louisiana State
3rd Year
HT: 5-10 WT: 214
BORN: 9-4-63
(D-2 in '86)

ENTERING THIS SEASON: The injury bug has hampered the productivity of Garry James during his brief NFL career...When healthy, he gives the Lions a quality running back...With a healthy "JAMES GANG" backfield of James and fullback James Jones, Detroit has one of the best tandems in the league..."If we're going to be a good football team, Garry James has to produce," said Detroit Coach Darryl Rogers. "He has to play more than he has the past two years. If we can keep Garry James healthy for the majority of the season, then I feel we can look at our running back position as one of strength."...For the first time since joining the Lions, James made Michigan his off-season home and spent the winter and spring months working out with his teammates and coaches at the Silverdome.

1987: Games: Played 8, Started 7.

went 48 yards for a score against Denver in '81...A fine receiver out of the backfield, James also grabbed 34 receptions for 219 yards.

COLLEGE and PERSONAL: James was a part of the famed "Dalton-James Gang" at LSU (which also featured present New Orleans tailback Dalton Hilliard), and despite sharing most of the rushing load with Hilliard, he finished his collegiate career as the Tigers' fourth-leading career rusher with 2,217 yards — one of only five LSU backs to ever rush for over 2,000 in his career...The duo accounted for more career rushing and receiving yards (8,394 total) than any backfield tandem in Southeastern Conference history...James concluded his career with 3,211 total yards...As a senior, he led the Tigers with 50 receptions for 414 yards and was second in the SEC among receivers with an average of 4.5 catches per game...James also gained 21.1 yards per kickoff return during his career (27 for 569 yards)...He rushed for a career-high 166 yards against Tulane in '82...He was also named MVP in the East-West Shrine game following his senior season...A highly-touted prospect out of West Jefferson High in Gretna, La., James was a first-team All-Quad A member as a senior and his squad's MVP after rushing for 1,510 yards and scoring 24 touchdowns...During the off-season, he married the former Raina Bliey of New Orleans...His full name is Garry Malcom James.

percentage), he opened the regular campaign in fine fashion, completing 63.2% (24-of-38, 195 yards, one TD) of his attempts in Detroit's season-opening loss to Minnesota...His two-yard scoring toss to Scott Williams against the Raiders accounted for the only points for Detroit in a 27-7 loss...The layoff from the strike didn't appear to hinder his progress when the veterans returned...Long had one of the finest passing games in Lions' history against Green Bay — 33 completions (which tied Eric Hippel's '86 record) on 47 attempts (fourth-highest in team history) for a 70.2% average and 362 yards (third-highest single-game total in Detroit history)...In the second half, Long was incredible, connecting on 21-of-28 passes for 241 yards and a TD...He also connected on three touchdowns, and more importantly, no interceptions...He nearly orchestrated the greatest comeback in Lions' history, when he led the Lions from a 31-7 deficit to a 33-31 lead late in the game, only to watch the Packers kick a field goal to go ahead 34-33 with one minute remaining...Undaunted, Long still put the Lions in a position to win in game's final seconds...He completed 4-of-5 passes and directed the Lions to the Packers' 28-yard line...But the Lions' 45-yard field goal attempt went wide as the final seconds ticked off the clock...His first victory as a starter came against the Cowboys...He threw for 217 yards on 15-of-28 passing and a 20-yard TD to Rob Rubick...His 48 attempts in the Silverdome versus the Rams was the third-highest in Detroit history (he completed 26, for 288 yards, one TD, and two interceptions)...Long directed the club to two wins (Tampa Bay and Atlanta) in its last three games, and he ended the season as the team leader in offensive minutes played (308.5)...His longest completion of his career came in the season finale at Atlanta — 53 yards to Gary Lee...Long's final numbers of '87 placed him in the team's top five in several categories: 416 attempts (second-highest), 232 completions (third-best), 2,598 passing yards (fifth-most) and 20 pass interceptions (tied for fourth—and led NFL)...Among NFC leaders, Long was second in pass attempts (behind Neil Lomax) and third in pass completions (trailing Joe Montana and Lomax).

CAREER: Games: Played 15, Started 14.

Entered the NFL record books with his first regular season NFL pass...It came during the Lions' Week 14 contest at Tampa Bay and it went for a 37-yard touchdown to Leonard Thompson...League records failed to show any other quarterback whose initial NFL pass went for a TD...Playing time early in his rookie career was limited due to his late reporting date to training camp (caused by contract negotiations)...He became the first quarterback selected by Detroit in the first round since Greg Landry in '68...Long saw playing time in only three games — two as a starter — and he threw for 247 yards on 21-of-41 passing and two TDs...He almost led the Lions to an upset in his first-ever start, against the defending world champion Chicago Bears, by connecting on 50% of his attempts (12-of-24) for 167 yards and one TD, but the Bears kicked a last-second field goal to win 16-13.

COLLEGE and PERSONAL: A three-year starter at Iowa, Long led the Hawkeyes to three bowl appearances during his career (Peach Bowl in '83, Freedom Bowl in '84 and Rose Bowl in '86)...The consensus All-America ('85) and two-time All-Big Ten pick was the Heisman Trophy runnerup to Bo Jackson in '85...He was also named the 1985 Maxwell Trophy recipient which goes to the College Football Player of the Year as selected by the Maxwell Football Club of Philadelphia...Long holds all the Iowa career passing records and also is the Big Ten Conference's all-time leader in passing and total offense...He also owns Big Ten career record for TD passes in a game (6), season (27) and career (74)...He threw for at least 200 yards in 27 college games during his career and his Iowa records include: 1,203 pass attempts, 782 completions, 74 TDs, 10,461 yards and single-season completion percentage (67.1%)...At the end of his NCAA career, Long ranked third in career passing efficiency and sixth in passing yards, and his 22 consecutive completions in an '84 game at Indiana also set an NCAA mark...During his career at Iowa, the Hawkeyes were 33-12-1 (.730) in games that Long started...He was a seven-letter winner in football, basketball and baseball at North High School in Wheaton, Ill., a Chicago suburb, where he was the All-Illinois quarterback as a senior...Very active in charity golf tournaments in the off-season...Born in Norman, Okla., his full name is Charles Franklin Long, Jr....He and his wife Lisa make their off-season home in nearby Bloomfield Hills, Mich....The couple welcomed their first child in June, a baby girl, Lindsay Ruth.

PETE MANDLEY

Wide Receiver
Kick Returner
Northern Arizona
5th Year
HT: 5-10 WT: 191
BORN: 7-29-61
[D-2 in '84]

ENTERING THIS SEASON: With the desire to prove that last season was not a fluke, Pete Mandley will look to pick up where he left off in '87...After much acclaim as an outstanding punt returner, Mandley established himself as one of the premier receivers in the league...He was Detroit's most productive weapon last year..."There's no question our best receiver last season was Pete Mandley," said Lions' Head Coach Darryl Rogers. "Pete should continue to develop and get even better this season. Pete really has come a long way for us. If he continues to make progress like he did last season, he can be an excellent receiver in the National Football League. He gives us speed and the ability to make something happen after he catches the ball. He also got us into the end zone (seven TDs) a lot last season."

1987: Games: Played 12, Started 12.

Making the first pro start of his career, Mandley equalled his total number of receptions from the previous season (seven) against the Vikings in the '87 season opener...He gained 79 yards on the day and scored his first TD as a receiver (five yards from Chuck Long)...Clearly becoming a favorite target of Long, he finished with another seven-reception (110 yards) effort against the Raiders in Week 2...After the strike, Mandley continued his career season with a six-catch, 77-yard performance versus Green Bay...In that game, he had two TD catches for the first time in his career...Mandley finished with a career-high eight receptions for 97 yards in the Lions win over the Cowboys, but perhaps his biggest play was a 61-yard punt return on the Lions' first possession in the third quarter which led to a Garry James two-yard TD run...The beat continued the next week against the Redskins as he averaged 10.0 yards-per-catch (seven for 70 yards), including a 30-yarder which set up Karl Bernard's first career TD...He averaged four receptions-per-game in the last four contests (vs. Rams, Buccaneers, Vikings and Falcons) and he earned a spot as a Pro Bowl alternate and the vote of his teammates as the Lions' MVP on offense...Mandley's 58 catches (720 yards, 12.4 average) placed him fifth among NFC leaders last year (third among receivers) and it was the sixth-highest season total in team history...His seven TD receptions were the most by a Lion since 1968...He also returned 23 punts for 250 yards (for a 10.9 average — fifth in the NFC)...He had a 73-yard punt return for a TD against Minnesota (Week 15) called back because of a penalty...That would have given him a punt return TD in each of the last three seasons...Mandley gained three yards on his first NFL carry in the season-ending win over Atlanta.

CAREER: Games: Played 59, Started 12.

A second-round draft choice out of Northern Arizona in 1984, Mandley's debut got off to a rocky start after he suffered a preseason toe injury...He missed several weeks of training camp and as a result, it put him behind for much of the '84 season...Although he registered just three pass receptions as a rookie, he did lead the squad in kickoff returns with 22 for a 17.7 average...Gained more playing time under the new coaching staff the following year ('85)...Mandley accounted for 871 all-purpose yards that season and scored his first pro TD on a 63-yard punt return against San Francisco...Mandley had 18 catches for 316 yards (17.6 average) that year...His 10.6 punting average was the third-best in the NFC and the seventh-best in the NFL...He scored another TD via punt returns in '86, when he blitzed the Falcons in the season finale for an 81-yard TD...Mandley's 43 punt returns for 420 yards were the Lions' second and third-best single-season totals respectively...In limited duty at wide receiver, he recorded seven receptions for 106 yards (15.1 average)...Entering this season, Mandley's 106 punt returns for 1,073 yards place him fourth (in both categories) in the all-time Detroit record book.

COLLEGE and PERSONAL: The holder of the NCAA Division 1-AA record for all-purpose yards with 5,922 (previously held by L.A. Raider Frank Hawkins), Mandley averaged 14.8 yards every time he touched the ball in four seasons at Northern Arizona...He set five Big Sky Conference records and 13 school marks, and captained the Lumberjacks for his final 17 games...An All-America selection as a junior (The Sporting News and the Associated Press), Mandley totalled 1,986 yards of total offense in '83...He was a sprinter on the NAU track team as a senior...Attended Westwood High School (also the prep school of Dallas' Danny White) in Mesa, Ariz., where he was All-State in track and football...Mandley and his wife Teresa have a son, Dejhown and a daughter, Treasure...“Pete” is not his given name, it resulted from his father’s nicknaming him “PeeWee” as a child and it evolved into “Pete”...His full name is William H. Mandley.

VERNON MAXWELL

Linebacker
Arizona State
5th Year
HT: 6-2 WT: 235
BORN: 10-25-61
(FA in '85)

ENTERING THIS SEASON: This could be a "prove" year for Vernon Maxwell at linebacker...After averaging 7.1 tackles-per-outing in '86, Maxwell accumulated 1.3 tackles-per-game last season (in 12 games)...Most of that can be attributed to the lack of playing time and the outstanding seasons turned in by outside linebackers Jimmy Williams and Michael Cofer.

1987: Games: Played 12, Started 1.

While Maxwell saw limited action at linebacker, he performed well on the Lions' special teams... "Vernon is a quality athlete who gives us excellent depth at linebacker," Lions' Head Coach Darryl Rogers said. "His play on special teams has been a big plus for us. He has to continue to contribute on special teams and also be a key role player in certain situations at linebacker for our football team."...He registered 16 total tackles on the year (14 solos).

CAREER: Games: Played 78, Started 49.

A second-round selection (29th overall) by Baltimore in 1983, Maxwell led the Colts in quarterback sacks as a rookie (11)...His effort that season earned him numerous honors, such as: AP and Pro Football Writers' Rookie of the Year, NFLPA and AFC defensive Rookie of the Year, College and Pro Football Newsweekly All-Pro (second team), and the UPI, Football Digest and Pro Football Writers' All-Rookie teams...He also finished third on the squad in total tackles (92) and the team leader in solo tackles (68) in '83...The next year ('84), Maxwell was second on the Colts in sacks (8.5) and tenth in total tackles (53)...He fell out of favor with the club and was traded to San Diego during the '85 training camp for a fifth-round pick...Was released by the Chargers prior to the opening game of the '85 season, and was signed by the Lions on Oct. 25, when Cofer went on the injured list with a hip injury...In his second year with Detroit ('86), Maxwell displayed the talent he showed in '83 when he earned NFL Defensive Rookie-of-the Year (as selected by the Associated Press) honors with Baltimore...He racked up 107 total tackles in 1986 (third on the club), just five behind team leader Demetrious Johnson...Maxwell led all linebackers that year with 87 solos and he also recorded two sacks.

COLLEGE and PERSONAL: A former pupil under Darryl Rogers at Arizona State, Maxwell was a three-time All-Pac Ten selection...He concluded his career with 337 total tackles, including 178 solos...As a senior ('82), he was one of four finalists for the Lombardi Award, awarded to the nation's outstanding collegiate lineman, and Maxwell was named ASU's defensive MVP in his final season...Also named first-team All-America by NEA, Football Coaches, Football Writers, Walter Camp and Sporting News...Played in the 1983 Hula Bowl...Born in Birmingham, Ala., he attended Verbum Dei High School in Los Angeles...His full name is Vernon Leroy Maxwell.

1987: Games: Played 12, Started 12.

After three straight 70-plus tackle seasons (1983-85) was snapped in '86 (65). McNorton would have once again reached that plateau if not for the NFL work stoppage (which caused him to miss four games)...His 64 total tackles (53 solos) led all defensive backs and his 370.9 minutes played paced the entire Lions squad...He also registered three interceptions last year (20 yards in return yards)...McNorton entered the season with the Lions' longest string of consecutive regular-season starts (56), but it ended at 58 straight due to the NFLPA work stoppage...In the first two games prior to the strike, he registered 12 total tackles (eight of which came against the Raiders)...When the regulars returned to action against Green Bay, McNorton led all tacklers with nine and he forced a fumble that eventually led to an Ed Murray field goal...He forced another fumble a week later against Denver in addition to recording seven tackles...Had a busy day vs. Kansas City (Week 12) with a game-high 11 tackles and a 20-yard interception that helped set up a late fourth-quarter TD drive...In Week 13 action against the Rams, he recorded six tackles and intercepted a Jim Everett fourth-quarter pass in the end zone.

McNorton has started at right cornerback since Week 9 of the '83 season, and he enters this season with 364 total tackles and 18 interceptions...Originally drafted as a defensive back/kick returner by Detroit, the fourth-round ('82) draft choice has not returned a kickoff or punt during his pro career...He missed most of his rookie season

HT: 6-5 WT: 275
BORN: 3-30-63
(D-3 in '86)

ENTERING THIS SEASON: Joe Milinichik provides quality depth at both guard positions for the Lions...A solid run blocker, Milinichik displayed great progress in his first season...His primary position is the right guard slot, backing up starter Keith Dorney.

CAREER and 1987: Games: Played 11, Started 0.

A third-round draft choice in '86, Milinichik saw his first regular season action in 1987...He had the misfortune of missing his entire rookie season after suffering a dislocated elbow in a locker room fall which forced him to spend the '86 season on injured reserve...He earned one start in the '87 preseason and got his first regular-season action in the season opener at Minnesota...After several games of limited playing time, Milinichik gained extensive action at right guard vs. Tampa Bay (Week 13) when Dorney went down with an injury in the second half...When left guard Scott Barrows was sidelined with an injury in Week 14 action against Minnesota, Milinichik filled in admirably once again..."Joe Milinichik helps solidify the inside line play," said Detroit Head Coach Darryl Rogers. "Joe is a strong run blocker. He has done some things well for us and has made great progress in one year. If he makes as much progress this year as he did last year, then I think we have a bona fide guard who's going to play."

BORN: 12-30-62
(D-4 in '86)

ENTERING THIS SEASON and 1987: If Devon Mitchell returns this season from a severe knee injury, the Detroit secondary will receive a much-needed boost...The injury, sustained in the final preseason contest of last year, caused Mitchell to miss the entire '87 season...His loss created a huge void in the defensive backfield last year, and as a result, the Lions drafted Miami All-America Bennie Blades in the first round this year...According to Detroit coach Darryl Rogers, Mitchell will not participate in full-contact action until the final '88 preseason game, provided his status is 100%.

CAREER: Games: Played 16, Started 16.

A fourth-round draft choice in '86 from the University of Iowa, Mitchell capped off a spectacular first year by earning All-Rookie honors from the Pro Football Writers and Pro Football Weekly...The only Lions' rookie to start every game in '86, he recorded five interceptions (for 41 yards) and 70 total tackles (51 solos)...Two of his thefts came against Steve Young in Detroit's 38-17 road victory at Tampa Bay.

STEVE MOTTO

Center
Alabama
6th Year
HT: 6-3 WT: 270
BORN: 3-24-61
(D-58 in '83)

ENTERING THIS SEASON: A heady veteran with a tremendous work ethic, Steve Mott has been the starter at center since Week 5 of his rookie season ('83)...Along with Keith Dorney, he's a veteran leader on an otherwise young offensive line.

1987: Games: Played 11, Started 11.

Mott's steady play at center continued in his fifth season and coupled with the play of the rest of the offensive line, it enabled Chuck Long to develop as an NFL quarterback...In Week 9 action against the Cowboys, Mott and his teammates did not permit a sack in a 27-17 win over Dallas...The following week (game 10 vs. Washington), another strong offensive line outing allowed only one quarterback sack — in the fourth quarter — to Redskins...After suffering a neck injury in the second half against the Rams (Week 13), Mott missed the next contest at Tampa Bay, but he returned to action for the Lions' final two regular season games against Minnesota and Atlanta.

CAREER: Games: Played 60, Started 59.

Detroit's second fifth-round selection of the 1983 draft, Mott's entrance into the starting lineup (Week 5) coincided with the team's championship about-face...After starting 1-4, the Lions won eight of the last 12 games with Mott at center enroute to the '83 NFC Central Division crown...He was one of only three rookies (along with James Jones and Mike Cofer) to start the '83 playoff game against San Francisco...He sustained a knee injury in that contest (in the first half) that required surgery and an entire off-season of rehabilitation...His recovery was successful, but after starting the first six games of the '84 season, he was sidelined for the remainder of that season with a fracture/dislocation of his ankle...In 1985, despite playing most of the season with a broken ring finger on his snapping hand, Mott started all 16 games...A 27-game string of consecutive starts was broken in '86 when Mott was forced to the sidelines with a severely sprained arch in his foot against Philadelphia, but he was able to return for the team's final three games of that season.

COLLEGE and PERSONAL: A high school All-America from New Orleans' (La.) Archbishop Shaw High School, Mott was recruited by the legendary Alabama coach Paul "Bear" Bryant...He was a three-year letterman at Alabama and a member of the Crimson Tide's 1979 national championship team...An All-SEC first team and honorable mention All-America in '82, Mott was the captain on Bryant's last Alabama ('82) squad...He and his wife Julie, a former 'Bama cheerleader, are very active in community and charity projects in both Detroit and their off-season residence of Birmingham, Ala....For the third straight year, they were instrumental in providing clothes for the needy on Thanksgiving Day with their annual "Lions' Merry Christmas" program... It was held prior to the team's yearly Thanksgiving Day game last season... In '86, their efforts were the subject of Detroit's NFL/United Way segment... Mott was the Lions' nominee for the NFL Man of the Year in '86, and his wife was a finalist among all NFL players' wives in the '87 NFLPA/Childhelp Awards dinner which recognized community involvement... He was also the 1985 recipient of the Ed Block Memorial Courage Award, which recognizes men of courage in the NFL and is presented by the East Side Athletic Club of Baltimore to one player on each of the 28 NFL teams... His full name is Walter Stephen Mott, III.

ENTERING THIS SEASON: One of the NFL's most accurate kickers, Eddie Murray hopes to pick up in 1988 where he left off last season... He finished the '87 campaign by hitting eight of his last 10 field goals and 11 of his last 14... Enters the 1988 season as the second-highest scorer among active NFC players.

1987: Games: Played 12, Started 0.

Murray added to his Detroit all-time scoring record after leading the Lions in that category for the eighth straight season... He scored 81 points last year, hitting 20-of-32 field goals and 21-of-21 extra point attempts... His string of having played in a team-high 73 straight games was snapped with the '87 NFL strike... In the season opener at Minnesota, Murray connected on his first four FGs (26, 27, 24, and 34) of the year, but when he missed his fifth of the day — from 54 yards — it prevented him from tying his own Lions' record for the longest field goal and string of successful field goal attempts (12)... He also was called upon to punt against the Vikings when Russell Erxleben suffered an injury and Murray delivered with kicks of 46 and 33 yards... Had his first field goal blocked since his rookie season against the Raiders (Week 2)... Murray was a big factor in win over the Cowboys (Week 9) with a perfect two-for-two on FGs and three-for-three on PATs... With two field goals (three attempts) against Washington, his late season surge began... Murray's last six games went like this: connected on his only FG attempt at Chicago (Week 10), from 36 yards; 2-of-3 FGs vs. Kansas City; 3-for-4 against the Rams (Week 13); 2-for-2 at Tampa Bay; he didn't get to attempt a field goal in Week 15 against Minnesota; and 3-for-4 in the season finale at Atlanta... Murray's 53-yarder against the Rams was his longest FG of the year (and in the NFL in '87) and the second longest in Detroit history — tying his 53-yard kick against the Bears in 1981... His 20 FGs tied for the eighth-most in a season in Lions' history... "Eddie struggled a bit early last season, but really came on for us during the latter part of the year," Lions' Head Coach Darryl Rogers said. "If he can get off to a fast start this season, he'll be as good as any kicker in the league."

CAREER: Games: Played 115, Started 0.

With each successful field goal or extra point he makes, Murray adds to his Lions' all-time scoring record, 765 points...He is also Detroit's all-time leader in PATs (249) and field goals (172)...Murray's .729 field goal accuracy marks places him ninth on the all-time NFL FG percentage chart...A seventh-round pick in the '80 draft, Murray also owns the Detroit record of consecutive FGs made with 12 (achieved through the final six games of '85)...Has hit on 75.5% of his field goal attempts (120-of-159) over the last six seasons, including 84.5% (60-of-71) in the Silverdome...He has twice tied Glenn Presnell's Detroit record 54-yard field goal, at Cincinnati (12-11-83) and in the '83 playoffs vs. San Francisco (12-31-83)...Murray had a banner rookie season ('80) when he led the NFL in scoring (116 points) and became the first and only rookie to be named the Pro Bowl's MVP after his four field goals iced a 21-7 NFC victory...His first pro kickoff (against the Rams on 9-7-80) was returned 98 yards for a TD by Drew Hill...In '81, Murray and Dallas' Rafael Septien led the league in scoring with 121 points, and Murray set a Lions' mark with 46 PATs...Has scored 12 points in playoff games, including 11 against San Francisco on New Year's Eve, 1983, although his 43-yard FG attempt sailed wide right with 0:05 left in that 24-23 loss to the 49ers.

COLLEGE and PERSONAL: He holds virtually every kicking record in Tulane history, where he was a four-year letterman, four-time All-South Independent choice and an honorable mention All-America ('78 and '79)...Murray was inducted into the Tulane Hall of Fame during Week 3 of last season...The education major was born in Halifax, Nova Scotia, and attended high school in Victoria, British Columbia after spending much of his childhood in England...Murray earned the equivalent of 26 varsity letters in high school (for rugby, soccer, field hockey, track field, volleyball and badminton), and turned down pro contracts from the Vancouver White Caps of the North American Soccer League and the British Columbia Lions of the Canadian Football League prior to enrolling at Tulane...Has been heavily involved in charity and community activities, and he is currently serving as co-chairman of the southeast Michigan chapter of Toys for Tots...In '85 and '86, Murray was voted by his teammates as the team's nominee for the NFLPA's prestigious Byron "Whizzer" White Humanitarian Award...He was honored in '87 by The Varsity Club of Detroit and awarded the V-Club's Heart Award for his charity participation...Murray also was honored as the Lions' NFL/Lite Man of the Year for '84 and '85, and was the March of Dimes (Southeast Michigan chapter) Athlete-Citizen of the Year in '85...Is an outstanding racquetball player and consistently shoots in the 70s on the golf course...Spends his off-seasons as a loan representative at Bloomfield (Mich.) Mortgage Corporation...His car's license plate reads "Kick It" and his nickname is "Money" — as in "On the Money"...He is a resident of Southfield, Mich., and he has a son, Robbie...His full name is Edward Peter Murray.

MARK NICHOLS

Wide Receiver
San Jose State
6th Year
HT: 6-2 WT: 208
BORN: 10-29-59
(0-1 in '81)

ENTERING THIS SEASON: If Mark Nichols is able to return to the level he performed in 1985, the Lions' wide receiver situation could be one of the team's strengths...Injuries have hurt this area over the past two seasons, and as a result Detroit selected three receivers in the '88 draft (Penn State's Ray Roundtree in third round, Stanford's Jeff James in the seventh and UCLA's Paco Craig in the 10th)..."This is going to be a pivotal year for Mark Nichols," said Lions' Head Coach Darryl Rogers. "If Mark can stay healthy and play like he did for us in 1985, he'll be a plus for our football team."

1987: Games: Played 12, Started 1.

After successful recovery from a knee injury that erased the final two games of '85 and all of '86, Nichols caught his first regular-season pass at the Raiders (a five-yarder) in Week 2...It was his first reception since the 14th game of the '85 season...He ended the season with seven catches for 87 yards (12.4 average), with a season-high two pass receptions on two occasions (Week 6 vs. Green Bay and Week 10 at Chicago)...In that contest against the Bears, Nichols had a season-high 25 receiving yards.

CAREER: Games: Played 76, Started 36.

Detroit's first selection in the '81 draft, Nichols was the 16th player chosen overall...A fractured shoulder blade and inconsistent play limited him to just 10 catches his rookie year...During the strike-shortened '82 season, Nichols had only eight catches...In that '82 season, Nichols again found himself on injured reserve with a foot fracture...His first pro TD reception came in the Lions' dramatic 27-24 win over the Cowboys (11-15-81) on a six-yard pass from Eric Hippel...His career-high for receptions in a game is five and he has done that three times — vs. Tampa Bay (9-4-83), Minnesota (9-25-83) and Minnesota (10-21-84)...The most receiving yards he has registered in a contest is 117 yards (the second Minnesota game)...His longest catch came on a 77-yard pass from Gary Danielson (9-16-84) against Tampa Bay...Nichols best season to date came during the '85 season when he registered career highs in receptions (36) and touchdowns (four), despite an extremely slow start...His knee problems (which eventually led to surgery) started when he suffered strained ligaments at Minnesota (11-3-85)...Nichols currently has 124 receptions for 2,235 yards and nine TDs...He also has carried the ball nine times for 108 yards (12.0 average).

COLLEGE and PERSONAL: The third all-time leading receiver in San Jose State history (1,217 yards on 48 catches and 16 touchdowns), Nichols played for then-Spartan coach Jack Elway, who now heads up the program at Stanford and is the father of Denver QB John Elway...He also set school records for single-season receiving yardage (773) and TD catches (11) in '79 after transferring from Bakersfield (Calif.) Junior College...He averaged an outstanding 26.7 yards-per-catch that year...During his final season at Bakersfield, Nichols averaged an incredible 38 yards-per-reception...He also lettered on the track team...A product of Bakersfield, Nichols played football, basketball and recovered a team-high two fumbles (tied with Jimmy Williams) ... Recorded six tackles against the Raiders despite being slowed by a hamstring injury ... Had perhaps his best game of the season vs. Packers in Week 7 when he finished with eight tackles (seven solos), one forced fumble and one fumble recovery ... Robinson turned into a one-man show the next week (vs. Denver), leading all defenders with 11 solo tackles ... Very consistent week in, week out ... "Shelton Robinson is a very tough and very solid player," said Lions' Head Coach Darryl Rogers. "Shelton will not hurt you by making mistakes. He's a dependable player..."

CAREER: Games: Played 84, Started 51.

A former starter for Seattle, Robinson was acquired by the Lions in 1986 for a fifth-round draft choice ('87) ... Injuries to Jimmy Williams and Vernon Maxwell forced a shuffling of the linebackers, and Robinson earned increased playing time and four starting assignments at the end of the '86 season ... He racked up 63 tackles (43 solos) in his first season ('86) with the Lions ... During his Seattle career, Robinson missed only one game — and it was a costly one ... He had started 31 of 32 games in the '83 and '84 season, but after starting the first three games of '85, a bruised hip sidelined him and eventually cost him his position ... Robinson was replaced by Freddie Young and from that time on he remained a reserve with the Seahawks ... A free agent signee in '82, he took over the Seattle starting left inside linebacker spot when the team switched to the "34" defense in '83 ... Robinson led Seattle with 93 total tackles in '84 and finished second in '83 with 95 ... He was the AFC's co-leader in fumble recoveries (four) in '83 ... Two of his recoveries went for TDs against the Raiders in '83 — a nine-yard return in a 38-36 win (10-16-83) and a 12-yarder (10-30-83) in a 34-21 triumph ... Returned his only NFL career interception for 18 yards at Cleveland in '83.

COLLEGE and PERSONAL: Robinson was a three-year letterman at North Carolina at tight end ... He also played defensive back and linebacker for the Tar Heels before being moved to offense as a freshman ... The three-year starter caught only one pass as a sophomore and junior, but in his senior year ('81), Robinson had 13 receptions for 93 yards and two TDs ... He played in the Bluebonnet and Gator Bowls during his career ... An industrial relations major, Robinson attended Aycock High School in Pikeville, N.C., where he lettered in football at two positions (running back and linebacker) ... He also participated in basketball and track ... His full name is Shelton Derrick Robinson.

Defensive End
Washington
2nd Year
HT: 6-6 WT: 285

ENTERING THIS SEASON: Following a disappointing rookie season, the Lions are optimistic that Reggie Rogers can live up to his pre-draft potential...He has great size and ability for a defensive lineman.

CAREER and 1987: Games: Played 6, Started 0.

Rogers became the first defensive lineman selected in the first round by the Lions in 14 years (since '73 when DE Ernest Price was chosen), and he was the seventh-overall pick of the draft...He opened the season behind William Gay at right end and was often used on the outside when the Lions shifted to a four-man front on the pass rush...Got his first NFL solo tackle against the Raiders (week 2) when he stopped Marcus Allen for a two-yard gain in the second quarter...Following the resumption of play after the NFL strike, Rogers saw action against the Packers (one tackle) and Broncos (two solos) before going on the non-football illness (for emotional and personal counseling) list on Nov. 6...He was out of action for 30 days...Upon his return, Rogers saw limited action in passing situations for the remainder of the season..."It's obvious that we did not get what we wanted out of him last season," said Detroit Head Coach Darryl Rogers. "We weren't satisfied with his performance and neither was Reggie. We feel he'll be much better this year. Already his attitude, as a person, and as a football player preparing for a season, is totally different than it was last year. We also feel our new defensive line coach, Dick Modzelewski will have a very positive effect on Reggie. One thing I can assure you, Dick will work Reggie as hard and as long as it takes to make him the player we feel he can be."

ROB RUBICK

Tight End
Grand Valley State
7th Year
HT: 6-3 WT: 234
BORN: 9-27-60
(D-12B in '82)

ENTERING THIS SEASON: Not a stranger to overcoming odds, Rob Rubick will be involved in another battle this season at the tight end position...With the acquisition of veteran David Hill and second-round draft pick Pat Carter, the battle for roster spots at tight end may be the most competitive of any position.

1987: Games: Played 9, Started 8.

Rubick led the tight ends in receptions with 13 catches for 147 yards (11.3 average) and one touchdown...Became the starter when incumbent Jimmie Giles did not report to the Lions until the last week of training camp...Before the NFL work stoppage, Rubick had three catches for 35 yards, with a season-long of 22 against the Raiders...He enjoyed a big day vs. Dallas by hauling in two receptions for 41 yards and one TD — a 20-yard catch from Chuck Long in the first quarter that gave Detroit a 10-0 lead...It was his first TD catch since '84...Later in the contest, Rubick sustained a knee injury which sidelined him for games at Washington and Chicago...He returned to the starting lineup versus Kansas City (Week 12) and had two catches for 15 yards...Made a season-high four receptions against the Rams (34 yards) before ending the season with two catches for 22 yards at Tampa Bay...Rubick missed the season-ending game at Atlanta with another knee injury.

CAREER: Games: Played 73, Started 23.

Despite being the club's final selection (second pick in the 12th round) of the '82 draft, Rubick's hard work and dedication paid off with a spot on the roster...Saw limited action as a rookie third-string tight end ('82) with only one rushing attempt (one yard) in seven games...He scored a touchdown on that play (the season finale against Green Bay) on an end-around which clinched a 27-24 victory over the Packers and gave Detroit its first playoff berth since 1970...That play remains Rubick's only career rushing attempt...In his second season, Rubick had 10 catches for 81 yards and scored his first pro TD on a six-yard toss from Gary Danielson against Atlanta (9-13-83)...His best season thus far came in '84 with 188 yards on 14 receptions (13.4 average) and one TD...Injuries hampered the 1985 season for him (off-season back and knee surgeries) and in '86, when Rubick grabbed five passes for 62 yards...In one starting assignment against the Bears, he finished with a career-high four receptions for 56 yards.

COLLEGE and PERSONAL: One of three Grand Valley State grads to play in the NFL (along with current teammate Jeff Chadwick and former Seahawk Ron Essink), Rubick held team records for career receptions (83) and yards receiving (1,491) and for season catches (33) and yards (558) — all of which were broken a year later by Chadwick...He has a degree in physical education with a minor in elementary education from GVSC, and he intends to coach and teach once his playing days are over...A popular banquet speaker, Rubick organized the Lions' off-season charity basketball team...A native of Newberry, a small town in Michigan's Upper Peninsula, Rubick lives year-round in Oxford, Mich....He was married this past June (Deborah)...His full name is Robin James Rubick.

DAN SALEAUMUA

Nose Tackle
Arizona State
2nd Year
HT: 6-0 WT: 285
BORN: 11-11-64
(D-7 in '87)

ENTERING THIS SEASON: After an impressive rookie campaign, Dan Saleaumua is expected to challenge for more playing time in '88...Always seems to be around the football..."He's an extremely adequate nose man," stated Lions' Head Coach Darryl Rogers. "Along with Jerry Ball, our future at this position is bright, but we still have to realize they are entering only their second year in the NFL."...Saleaumua also contributes as a member of the special teams.

CAREER and 1987: Games: Played 9, Started 0.

Detroit's seventh-round choice in the '87 draft, Saleaumua was very familiar to a couple of coaches on the Lions' staff — Head Coach Rogers and Outside Linebacker Coach Willie Shaw...He played two seasons under Rogers at Arizona State, and he was recruited by then-ASU assistant Shaw...His Detroit career began on the injured reserve list after suffering a hamstring injury on 9-7-87...He did not return to action until Week 8 at Denver, where he contributed two solo tackles...In the Lions' 27-17 triumph over Dallas, Saleaumua gained his first NFL sack (an eight-yard takedown of Danny White) on the Cowboys' last drive in the game...Finished with five tackles, a 10-yard sack (of QB Wade Wilson) and a kickoff return of 18 yards against the Vikings...Saleaumua ended the season with 16 total tackles and two sacks...Unofficially led all NFL defensive linemen in kickoff returns with three for 57 yards — all coming off squib kicks.

COLLEGE and PERSONAL: Saleaumua was twice chosen as a second-team All-Pac 10 selection (in '84 and '85) and he was a four-time Sun Devil letterman...He closed

HARVEY SALEM

73

Guard-Tackle
California
6th Year
HT: 6-6 WT: 285
BORN: 1-15-61
(Trade in '86)

ENTERING THIS SEASON: Harvey Salem appears to have found a home at right tackle for the Lions...With future All-Pro Lomas Brown at left tackle, Detroit has two of the best tackles in the league...The Lions are very high on Salem, who appears to be on the verge of entering the elite class of NFL offensive linemen.

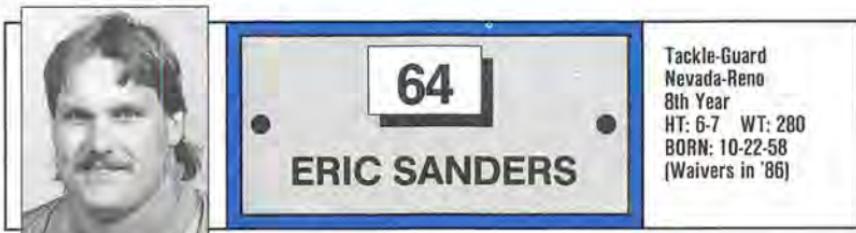

1987: Games: Played 11, Started 11.

Extremely versatile player, Salem has played every offensive line spot for the Lions except center...He missed training camp for the second straight season (contract negotiations) and was not signed to a new contract until the eve of the season-opener at Minnesota...Activated for Week 2 at the Raiders, Salem started in place of injured LT Brown...Because of an injury to Keith Dorney, Salem started at the right guard spot vs. Green Bay when the regulars returned to action after a four-week strike...In Week 8 at Denver, he replaced another injured Lion — RT Rich Strenger — in the starting lineup...Shut out Dallas defensive end Ed Jones for no sacks in Week 9 after Jones had four sacks in the Cowboys' previous week's game against the Giants...He had another shutout a week later against the Redskins' Charles Mann...A joint effort by the offensive line vs. Kansas City (Week 12) held the Chiefs without a sack, and two weeks later (at Tampa Bay), Salem and the rest of the line accomplished it once again..."We are very optimistic that Harvey can be an excellent football player for us," Lions' Head Coach Darryl Rogers said. "It's going to be important for him to get the good work in training camp that will help him during the season. Harvey has not been in training camp the past two seasons, so the work he gets in this camp ('88) will be nothing but a plus for Harvey and for our entire team."...For every Detroit win last season, Salem donated $500 to charity.

CAREER: Games: Played 70, Started 68.

The Lions acquired Salem in trade with Houston (for a second-round pick in the '87 draft) during Week 4 of the '86 season...Despite being a starter with the Oilers, Salem became available after he expressed unhappiness about playing in Houston and following a 44-day training camp and preseason holdout...He immediately moved into the Lions' lineup at right guard, but switched to left guard the next week (ironically against his old teammates from Houston) and remained there the rest of the season...He became the ninth different player to start at LG for the Lions since the 1984 season (a 35-game span since the first game of '84)...He was a second-round selection by the Oilers in '83 (30th player overall), and in his first season he was named to the NFL All-Rookie team by PFWA and Pro Football Weekly after starting all 16 games at right tackle...Salem spent the next two seasons with the Oilers at left tackle before moving to guard early in the '86 season, just prior to his trade to the Lions in '86.

COLLEGE and PERSONAL: Salem was named to several All-America teams as a junior and senior ('81 and '82) and tabbed first-team All-America by The Sporting News his senior season...The epitome of the "student-athlete," he was an Academic All-America at Cal-Berkeley (at tackle) during his final two seasons...Finished college with a 3.5 GPA in psychology...The two-time All-Pac 10 first team member ('81 and '82) made the conference's All-Academic team three years, and he was also named to the Strength All-America team for his weightlifting training as a senior...Participated in the East-West Shrine and Japan Bowl games in his final year...He also threw the shot put (personal-best 60 feet) on the Cal track team...A native and resident of Berkeley, his full name is Harvey M. Salem.

ENTERING THIS SEASON: A versatile offensive lineman who can play at all the positions, Eric Sanders also serves as the team's long snapper on all punts, PATs and field goals...He enters training camp as the backup to Lomas Brown at left tackle.

CAREER and 1987: Games: Played 90, Started 18.

Sanders saw action in 12 games last season...After Lomas Brown went down with an injury in the '87 opener at Minnesota, he stepped in at left tackle early in the second quarter and played the remainder of the game...He filled in for Brown on two other occasions (Week 10 at Washington and Week 14 at Tampa Bay) because of injuries to Brown...Sanders came to the Lions via waivers (11-18-86) from Atlanta and saw limited action in Detroit's final three games...He handled the long-snapping duties in those final contests and filled in at tackle at Pittsburgh (Week 14)...He started three games at right tackle for the Falcons before going on injured reserve with a back injury ('86)...The fifth-round choice of the Falcons in '81, Sanders started six games at right tackle during his rookie season...In '84 he started two games at left tackle, then filled in during '85 for seven games — one at left guard, one at right tackle and five at left tackle — all because of injuries to Falcons' starters...Despite his long-snapping ability, Sanders has not played at center during his pro career.

COLLEGE and PERSONAL: Because of a heavy academic load, Sanders did not play football until his junior season at Nevada-Reno...A pre-med student, his college major

RICKY SMITH

Cornerback
Alabama State
5th Year
HT: 6-0 WT: 188
BORN: 7-20-60
(FA in '87)

ENTERING THIS SEASON: One of the Lions' pleasant surprises last season, Ricky Smith enters training camp as the backup to Bruce McNorton at right cornerback...Considering Smith had not played in a regular season game since 1984, his play in '87 is even more impressive.

1987: Games: Played 12, Started 0.

After two training camp tryouts (Indianapolis in '85 and Miami in '86), Smith earned a spot on the roster with the Lions last season when the team made its final reduction to 45 players on Sept. 7...But his euphoria was short-lived, when, on Sept. 9 he was released after Detroit traded with Pittsburgh for CB Harvey Clayton...Four days later, however, the Lions decided Smith was better suited for the team's defense and he was re-signed and Clayton was released...Saw his first regular-season action since his days with Redskins ('84) when he appeared in Detroit's season-opener at Minnesota...With injuries to corners McNorton and Duane Galloway, Smith saw considerable action at Chicago (Week 11), finishing with seven solos...Had three solos and one pass deflection at Tampa Bay (Week 14)...Concluded the season in grand style with a pass interception (second of career) against the Falcons that he returned 34 yards for a touchdown — the first Lions' TD pass interception since Ray Oldham turned the trick in '82...Although he did not start any games, he topped the Lions' with seven pass deflections to go along with his 22 total tackles.

CAREER: Games: Played 48, Started 0.

Smith spent two seasons with New England after he was a sixth-round draft pick in '82...He handled the team's kickoff and punt returns in '82 and '83, and his 23.6 yard kickoff return average his first season ranked third in the AFC and sixth in the NFL...He returned a kickoff 98 yards for a touchdown for the Patriots against the Jets his rookie season...Smith's averaged 22.5 yards on 66 kickoff returns and 9.9 yards on 54 punt returns with New England...In one season with the Redskins (who traded for him in '84), Smith intercepted his first NFL pass (against Detroit) and contributed seven tackles on defense...Overall, he has 46 tackles and two interceptions.

COLLEGE and PERSONAL: In college, Smith had seven career pass interceptions at Alabama State, including three his senior year...He also punted 221 times for the Hornets for 7,438 yards for a 33.7 career average...Smith was the NAIA's national indoor long jump champion in '79 and '80, and he has a personal-best leap of 25'3"...He also played centerfield on the Hornets' baseball team...Graduated with a B.S. in human services with a minor in health and recreation...He and his wife Chinetia have one children: Shandelyn LaCarla and Shawtae LaTrice...His full name is Ricky DeCarlo Smith.

ENTERING THIS SEASON: Hopes to overcome nagging injuries that have plagued him the last two seasons...After his first four years were injury-free, Bobby Watkins has played in less than 50% of Detroit's games (nine out of a possible 19) over the past two seasons...He enters training camp as the starter at left corner.

1987: Games: Played 5, Started 5.

After a successful recovery from an '86 season foot (arch) injury, Watkins suffered a thigh muscle injury in the final preseason game (same game in which Devon Mitchell was injured) at Philadelphia that would plague him for most of the season...He missed a total of seven games, and did not see action until the Week 12 contest vs. Kansas City...He had two solo tackles and a pass deflection in that game (vs. Chiefs)...It was Watkins' first regular season appearance since Oct. 5, 1986 against Houston...With a season-high four solos at Tampa Bay (Week 14), Watkins ended a frustrating '87 with 12 tackles (10 solos).

CAREER: Games: Played 66, Started 61.

Watkins was the Lions' second-round draft pick in the 1982 draft (42nd player overall)...Made a significant impact in his rookie season ('82) with five interceptions and 27 total tackles...The following season, Watkins posted a career-high 109 tackles (85 solos) and grabbed four interceptions...Over his career, Watkins has led the Lions in interceptions three times...Seven of his 20 lifetime thefts have come against the Packers — three in one game against Lynn Dickey on Jan. 1, 1983...His longest interception return is 31 yards (vs. Bears on 10-30-83).

Defensive End
Washington State
5th Year
HT: 6-4 WT: 280
BORN: 2-24-62
(D-3A in '84)

ENTERING THIS SEASON: Eric Williams has shown steady progress as a defensive lineman during his years with the Lions, and a big season is expected from him in '88...In fact, for the first time since joining the Lions, he has spent the majority of his offseason in Michigan and participated in daily workouts at the Silverdome..."Eric Williams played as consistent as any of our defensive linemen last season," said Lions' Head Coach Darryl Rogers. "I feel he is a good, solid NFL defensive end."

1987: Games: Played 11, Started 11.

After spending the last half of the 1985 and all of the '86 season at the nose tackle position, Williams returned to his more familiar left defensive end spot last year and led Detroit's defensive linemen in total tackles with 38...The imposing figure also had two sacks for 16 yards in losses...Despite a hip injury vs. the Packers (Week 7),

Williams registered four solo tackles...The injury placed him on the inactive list for the Lions' next game at Denver...He had three solos, batted down a pass, and a forced a key fourth-quarter fumble against the Redskins (Week 10)...The next week he had five tackles and a sack of Bears' QB Jim McMahon...Registered a season-high five solos against Kansas City (Week 12) and four solos including a 10-yard sack of Tampa Bay's Vinny Testaverde in Week 14.

CAREER: Games: Played 51, Started 40.

Started 17 straight games (not counting strike games) before being placed on inactive list (Week 8) last season with hip injury...Williams was a third-round pick of the Lions in the '84 draft...He earned a starting assignment in the first game of his rookie season when Curtis Green was out with an injury, but most of his rookie year was a washout...Williams played sparingly in 12 games and had only nine total tackles on the year...He moved into the starting lineup in the second year under the new coaching staff and racked up 60 tackles and 6.5 sacks in 12 games before suffering a season-ending neck injury against the Jets...His final two starts that season were at nose tackle, where he replaced Doug English, whose career ended in an '85 Week 10 game by, ironically, a neck fracture...He returned the next season ('86) to lead Detroit's defensive linemen with 62 total tackles (52 solos), in addition to three sacks, one interception, one fumble recovery and one blocked field goal...Williams endured a host of injuries in '86 (hip, shoulder and finger — which required off-season surgery).

COLLEGE and PERSONAL: An All-America defensive lineman at Washington State in '83, Williams was a teammate of another Cougar All-America defensive lineman, present Minnesota Viking Keith Millard...He also was a first-team All-Pac 10 and All-West Coast selection as a senior ('83) and played in the Senior Bowl game...Majored in agricultural economics at Washington State...Williams is the son of former Lions' second-round pick Roy Williams, who was released by Detroit and then played with the 49ers from 1958-64...The Williams' family makes their home in Stockton, Calif....His two brothers were college basketball players — Scott at Idaho State and Dan at George Washington University...Williams rushed for over 200 yards (at fullback) in his final high school game at Stockton's St. Mary's High...During the off-season, Williams opened Big E's Lockerroom Saloon and Eatery in Lodi, Calif...His full name is Eric Michael Williams.

JIMMY WILLIAMS

Outside Linebacker
Nebraska
7th Year
HT: 6-3 WT: 230
BORN: 11-15-60
(D-1 in '82)

ENTERING THIS SEASON: The Lions' have a talented group of linebackers, and heading the list is defensive captain Jimmy Williams...He capped off an exceptional year in '87 by being selected by his teammates as the defensive MVP...Asserted his team leadership role at conclusion of Lions' spring mini-camp (May, 1988) when he called a team meeting that contained challenges to all the players to "get the job done this season and stop making excuses."...Appears to be on the verge of entering the elite class of NFL linebacker and earning that coveted trip to the Pro Bowl.

1987: Games: Played 76, Started 70.

Williams made a triumphant return from a knee injury which caused him to miss the final six games of '86, and the Lions' ('87) defensive captain was the team's most dominating defensive player last year...He opened the season with a strong performance at Minnesota (six tackles) and a Herculean effort against the Raiders (11 total tackles, 9 solos, a forced fumble and a blocked punt)...For his play against the Silver and Black, Williams was chosen the Lions' defensive Player of the Game...His outstanding play continued when the veterans returned to action following the four-week NFLPA work stoppage...Averaged five tackles per outing over the final 10 games of the season, and 6.8 tackles in his last four games...Williams' best game of the season came at Tampa Bay (Week 14) when he recorded six solo tackles, including an 11-yard sack of Vinny Testaverde, had a 48-yard pass interception return that set up a Lions' FG, and blocked a punt that set up a Detroit fourth quarter TD...In the season finale at Atlanta, Williams gained his second pass interception of the year and recorded seven tackles, a pass deflection and sacked QB Chris Miller for a six-yard loss...He ended the season as the team's second-leading tackler (69 total) and was third on the club in total minutes played (362)...He also was honored by the Lions' Quarterback Club as the team's Most Valuable Defensive Player.

CAREER: Games: Played 76, Started 70.

Detroit's No. 1 selection in the 1982 draft (15th overall), Williams played sparingly in his first season...He was used mostly in passing situations early in his career because of his excellent speed (4.5 in the 40-yard dash)...Since that time, Williams has started in 70 consecutive games...Was fifth on the squad in tackles in '83 (143 total) and placed second in that category in '84 with 140 tackles...With the arrival of a new coaching staff ('85), Williams moved to his more natural left outside linebacker position (a position he played in college)...He responded with a career-high 7.5 sacks that season...His numbers dropped in '86, largely because of a knee injury...Williams has accumulated 514 tackles, 17 sacks, five interceptions and six fumble recoveries during his years with the Lions.

COLLEGE and PERSONAL: Incredibly, Williams did not receive a single football scholarship offer from a major university after his high school days at Washington, D.C.'s Woodrow Wilson High...As a result, Williams teamed with his brother Toby and enrolled at Nebraska, where both made the squad as walk-ons...Toby is currently a nose tackle with New England...Dedication in weight room helped him increase his weight to 215 pounds (from 190 as a freshman) and improve his speed to a one-time clocking of 4.3 in the 40-yard dash...He was a consensus All-Big Eight pick as a senior...In 1981 Williams was the Big Eight Conference's Defensive Player-of-the-Year, and was named to nine All-America teams as a senior...Very active in church and community affairs, Williams does a lot of speaking to church youth groups...Also has shared his religious testimony at numerous area prisons...Is the Lions' 1988 United Way representative...Loves jazz and is a novice saxophone and piano player...He and his wife Chris have one daughter, Brittney and they reside in nearby Rochester, Mich....His full name is James Henry Williams.

He played in all 16 games in his first year with the Oilers and finished second in team rushing with 103 carries for 392 yards and one TD... LIONS' MVP

Since the 1952 season, Detroit Lions' players have voted for the Lions' Most Valuable Player. From that initial MVP vote until 1966, only one Lions' player was honored per season. Since 1967, Offensive and Defensive MVPs have been honored, and since 1981 the Lions also have voted for a Special Teams' MVP. For the 1987 season, the Offensive MVP was receiver Pete Mandley, who led the club in receiving with 58 catches. On defense, linebacker Jimmy Williams was selected for the second time in the last three seasons after posting his best season as a pro. For the second straight year, the Special Teams' MVP was linebacker Paul Butcher.

(1988 DRAFTES)

BENNIE BLADES

Defensive Back
Miami (Fla.)
HT: 6-1 WT: 216
BORN: 9-3-66
Hometown:
Ft. Lauderdale, FL
(D-1, 3rd Overall)

With their highest draft position since 1980, the Detroit Lions believe their No. 1 selection in this year's NFL draft has the capabilities of becoming one of the outstanding players in the league, and defensive back Bennie Blades welcomes the challenge.

"I am every excited about playing in Motown," Blades exclaimed. "I've always dreamed about going somewhere and making an impact. Now it's time for me to live up to my goals, dreams and expectations."

Blades' selection marked the first time since 1978 (when the Lions chose Notre Dame's Luther Bradley) that Detroit used its first round pick to select a defensive back. He also becomes the third-highest defensive back ever selected in the NFL draft since 1956 when Gary Glick of Colorado A&M was the NFL's top pick by the Pittsburgh Steelers. LSU's Jerry Stovall was the number two overall selection (St. Louis Cardinals) in 1963 and Bill Stacy of Mississippi State was (like Blades) the #3 pick of the Chicago Cardinals in the 1959 draft. Blades also was the highest defensive back chosen since Kenny Easley was taken by Seattle (#4 overall) in 1981.

An outstanding product, Blades was a consensus All-American at the University of Miami (Fla.) and the co-winner of the 1987 Jim Thorpe Award, given to the nation's premier defensive back, with Oklahoma's Rickey Dixon (who was chosen by Cincinnati in the first round). He concluded his collegiate career as the school's all-time leader in interceptions with 19, and his 305 yards in interception returns was another school mark. Blades also holds the Miami record for interception returns for touchdowns with two.

Described by his college coach, Jimmy Johnson, as "the best player at his position that I have ever coached," Blades was considered the leader of one of the finest collegiate secondary units in America last season. He is a tough, aggressive hitter who easily handles his opponents in one-on-one matchups, and he has the ability to play any position in the secondary.

Blades was the third-leading tackler for last season's national champions, finishing the season with 124 total tackles (53 solos), and he paced the Hurricanes with five interceptions for 61 yards in returns. His recovery of a fumble by Florida State quarterback Danny McManus with 3:28 remaining set up the eventual game-winning 73-yard touchdown receptions by teammate Michael Irvin, as Miami rallied from a 19-3 deficit to a 26-25 win over the Seminoles.

He made a season-high 18 tackles in a 27-13 triumph over Virginia Tech and held Heisman Trophy winner and All-American receiver Tim Brown to a pair of receptions while recording seven tackles with an interception in a 24-0 blanking of Notre Dame.

As a junior, Blades earned All-America honors for the first time (The Sporting News, UPI, and the Associated Press), and he was third in the voting for the Jim Thorpe Award. He ranked third on the squad in tackles with 96 (59 solos) and his 10 interceptions was tops among the nation's defenders (128 yards).

Blades continued

During his sophomore season, Blades moved to free safety from cornerback in fall drills and the adjustment was relatively easy for the Ft. Lauderdale product, as he finished with 58 tackles (38 solos) and four interceptions.

Blades was a second-team All-State defensive back at Piper High in Ft. Lauderdale, where he also played running back. He gained 1,068 yards on 204 carries and scored 11 touchdowns.

An extremely quick talent, Blades was recently timed at 4.38 in the 40-yard dash, and in 1984 he was invited to participate in the Olympic Trials.

A business management major at Miami, Horatio Bennie Blades was born September 3, 1966 and he has a three-year-old son, Horatio, Jr.

Coach Darryl Rogers' Comments: "We feel that Bennie Blades is the caliber of football player that this team needs right now. We think that he can play, and become the impact player we are looking for. We hope that he is able to shore up our secondary. He could possibly play either safety position for us, but a lot depends upon the return of Devon Mitchell. Bennie has played both safety positions, in addition to cornerback, but at this time we do not have plans for him at cornerback. Anytime you draft a number one player, you expect him to start and we anticipate Bennie to start at free or strong safety. We expect Bennie to contribute greatly to our program."

CHRIS SPIELMAN

Middle Linebacker
Ohio State
HT: 6-0 WT: 234
BORN: 10-11-65
Hometown: Canton, OH
(D-2a, 29th Overall)

An intense competitor who loves to hit, Chris Spielman was regarded by many as the best linebacker in the country last year. This second round choice plays the game hard and has a lot of confidence in his ability.

"We feel Chris is an impact player," said Lions' Director of Player Personnel Joe Bushofsky. "All he does is make great plays. He has great instincts and a great ability to cover the football."

Spielman ranks third on the Ohio State all-time tackle list behind Marcus Marek (572) and Tom Cousineau (569) with 546, and ironically, all three All-America linebackers wore No. 36 for the Buckeyes.

He capped a fine senior season by winning the Lombardi Award, becoming only the second linebacker to ever win the award. Spielman's style of play has been compared to Hall of Famer Dick Butkus.

A two-time All-American and three-time All-Big Ten selection, Spielman led his squad in tackles last season with 156 (third in the Big Ten). He also had four sacks and ten tackles for 45-yards in losses, as well as causing three fumbles and making two interceptions. Garnered a season-high 19 tackles in a 24-3 season-opening win over West Virginia.

As a junior, Spielman made an incredible 205 total tackles (105 solos), as the Buckeyes captured the Big Ten title. He was a finalist for both the Lombardi and Dick Butkus Awards, and he was named MVP of the Kickoff Classic and Defensive Player of the Game for his 11-tackle, two-interception performance in Ohio State's 28-12 win over Texas A&M in the Cotton Bowl.

Spielman registered 140 tackles as a sophomore (76 solos), finishing second on the team in that category. He also had three interceptions on the year and four sacks.

In his rookie season, Spielman saw extensive action and ended the year with 45 tackles, 15 of which came against Southern California in the Rose Bowl.

The All-American linebacker at Washington (Massillon, Ohio) High was selected the top High School Linebacker in the Nation by Parade Magazine, and was also picked as the Male High School Athlete of the Year by Armour-Dial. Spielman graduated with a 3.8 GPA from Washington.

The physical education major was born October 11, 1965. His brother, Rick, also is a member of the Detroit Lions, having signed a free agent contract this past February. Rick, who attended Southern Illinois University, also plays linebacker. Also joining Spielman as a member of this year's Lions team is Ohio State teammate William White, who was picked in the fourth round.

PAT CARTER

Tight End
Florida State
HT: 6-4 WT: 263
BORN: 8-1-66
Hometown: Sarasota, FL
(D-2b, 32nd Overall)

After gaining the services of two highly-touted defensive players, the Lions were looking for a little bit of stability when they selected Pat Carter of Florida State with their second pick of the second round.

Four different players started at tight end during the 12 non-strike games last year, and Carter's arrival in Detroit should lend more stability to that position.

"I'd compare Pat Carter with Mark Bavaro (N.Y. Giants) when he came out of college," said Lions' Director of Player Personnel Joe Bushofsky. "Pat is very nimble-footed and can advance the ball because of his strength and quickness. We think he's one of the finest blocking tight ends to come out of the draft in years. He's a dominating blocker and we feel he'll continue that way in the NFL."

Carter was a first-team All-American selection by The Sporting News last year after finishing the season with 33 receptions (second on the FSU team) for 328 yards and two touchdowns. He averaged 9.9 yards per catch last season. Carter's best game of the year came against Auburn when he exploded for 79 yards and a score on seven receptions, as the Seminoles rolled 34-6.

In 1986 Carter earned first-team All-South Independent and honorable mention All-America honors despite numerous injuries to the Seminole quarterbacks. He caught 18 passes for 183 yards, averaging 10.2 yards per catch.

As a sophomore, Carter started nine of 12 games and finished the season with 235 yards on 19 receptions. Enjoyed his best game that year against Oklahoma State, grabbing five passes for 81 yards in a 34-23 win over the Cowboys. The Sarasota native saw action in six games his freshman year, catching 13 passes for 175 yards and two touchdowns. Carter, who was a standout athlete at Riverview (Fla.) High, was born August 1, 1966.

RAY ROUNDTREE

Wide Receiver
Penn State
HT: 6-0 WT: 180
BORN: 4-19-66
Hometown: Aiken, S.C.
(0-3, 59th Overall)

An exceptional athlete, Ray Roundtree became the first wide receiver drafted by the Lions when he was selected in the third round.

The versatile Roundtree averaged 20.5 yards per catch during his Penn State career, hauling in 46 passes and scoring nine times. In addition, he also scored twice as a rusher, gaining 128 yards on 10 carries during his four-year college career.

Last season he finished with 14 receptions for 347 yards (24.8 average) and five touchdowns. In Penn State's 35-21 win over Rutgers, Roundtree had an outstanding day with 104 yards on four receptions, including a 39-yard TD catch.

As a junior, Roundtree started in all 12 contests and his 16 receptions were the fourth-highest on the team (296 yards, 2 TDs). He carried the ball once for a three-yard gain in a 14-10 victory over Miami in the Fiesta Bowl as the Lions won the national championship.

Roundtree, who had 15 receptions in 1985 (285 yards)—his first full season as a wideout, led Penn State. He averaged 19.0 yards per catch and scored twice, with both TDs coming against West Virginia.

Originally signed as a quarterback from South Aiken (S.C.) High, Roundtree switched to the split end position during his freshman year. An All-South Carolina and Parade All-American option quarterback, he accumulated 1,770 yards in total offense as a senior.

A finance major at Penn State, Roundtree was born April 19, 1966.

Coach Darryl Rogers' Comments: "Ray's an excellent prospect, with outstanding speed, good hands and he's a bright young man. He doesn't have the greatest statistics since Penn State is not known as a passing team, but he is an excellent athlete who can do something with the ball once he gets it."

WILLIAM WHITE

Cornerback-Safety
Ohio State
HT: 5-10 WT: 189
BORN: 2-19-66
Hometown: Lima, OH
(D-4, 86th Overall)

A very intelligent athlete, Detroit landed a student of the game when they selected William White in the fourth round. White spends countless hours studying game and practice film in the hopes of perfecting his skill.

"William is a great kid," said Lions' scout Dirk Dierking. "and he is very intelligent. He proved over his four years as a starter at Ohio State that he has excellent instincts for the ball and that he can play corner or safety. His 16 career pass interceptions is outstanding."

White, who excels in the bump-and-run defense, was a first-team All-Big Ten selection this past year. He recorded 41 tackles (29 solos) and five interceptions for 85 yards in returns. Three of his five thefts came against West Virginia when the Buckeyes had six as a team in a 24-3 win. His performance in that game earned him Big Ten Defensive Player of the Week honors.

He started 10 games as a junior, finishing the season with 38 tackles and two interceptions.

In 1985 White held the starting job at left cornerback and he ended the year with 51 total tackles (29 solos), two for losses of two yards. His six interceptions led Ohio State, and his interceptions against Minnesota led to the eventual game-winning TD.

As a freshman, White's 333.5 minutes of playing time was tops among all Buckeye defensive players as the Lima High product started every contest. White registered 48 total tackles (31 solos), three interceptions and recovered two fumbles.

A two-way player at Lima (Ohio) High, White ran for 1,444 yards and 12 TDs as a senior and caught two other scores. White, a mechanical engineering major at Ohio State, was born February 19, 1966.

ERIC ANDOLSEK

Offensive Guard
Louisiana State
HT: 6-2 WT: 281
BORN: 8-22-66
Hometown:
Thibodaux, LA
(D-5, 112th Overall)

The Lions' fifth-round selection, LSU's Eric Andolsek, impressed the Detroit scouts with his tremendous size and blocking abilities.

"We were looking for people in the draft who love to play the game of football and Eric is one of those type of people," said John Trump, area scout for the Lions, who scouted Andolsek. "He has wanted to play pro ball ever since he first put on a uniform. He's an extremely strong and intense player who has a defensive player's temperament."

Andolsek, a three-year starter for the Tigers, earned third-team All-American honors (College & Pro Football Newsweekly) and All-Southeastern Conference accolades this past season as a member of LSU's powerful offensive line. LSU averaged over 440 yards per game in 1987.

A fine physical specimen, Andolsek had a super junior year enroute to picking up All-SEC first team honors. Against Alabama, he held the Crimson Tide's Curt Jarvis to two assisted tackles and against Notre Dame, Andolsek held the Fighting Irish's Wally Kleine to just a solo tackle.

After playing on both sides of the ball in LSU's Sugar Bowl appearance against Nebraska during his freshman season, Andolsek became a starter in the fourth game of the following year and as a result, he was named first-team All-Louisiana.

A former teammate of present Lion RB Garry James, Andolsek was a three-year letterman (as a two-way lineman) at Thibodaux (La.) High. During his senior year at Thibodaux, he was named to the Adidas All-American team and he was selected his team's MVP. An economics major, Andolsek was born August 22, 1966.

CARL PAINTER

Running Back
Hampton Institute
HT: 5-9 WT: 184
BORN: 5-10-64
Hometown: Norfolk, VA
(D-6, 143rd Overall)

A multi-talented athlete who has excellent speed in the open field, Carl Painter was Detroit's sixth-round pick. The Hampton Institute running back established career marks for rushing yardage (3,223) and attempts (628), breaking the old marks of 533 attempts for 3,064 yards set by Dennis Mahan (1979-82).

Painter also has the ability to catch the ball coming out of the backfield, as evidenced by his 25 receptions for 383 yards (15.3 average) over his career.

He was a first-team Little All-American pick by The Poor Man's Guide to the NFL Draft and a first-team All-Central Intercollegiate selection after leading his squad in rushing (981 yards) and scoring (96 points) this past year. His best effort of '87 came against Bowie State when he gained 177 yards on 17 attempts, including a 77-yard TD run.

Painter posted career high numbers as a junior in 1985 (he missed the '86 season with an injury), rushing for 1,170 yards on 206 carries (5.7 average) and nine touchdowns. He earned All-CIAA honors that season.

The Norfolk native broke into the starting lineup as a sophomore, leading the team in rushing with 481 yards and a touchdown on 121 carries in nine games.

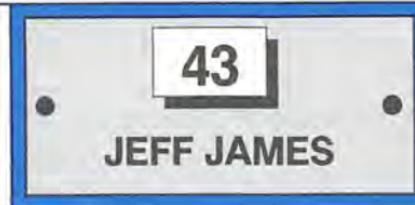

As a freshman he made an immediate impact in the backfield, pacing Hampton in rushing with 533 yards on 105 attempts.

An All-District and All-Area selection at Booker T. Washington (Norfolk) High, Painter also competed on the school's track team. He runs the 40-yard dash in 4.49 seconds, and he was born May 10, 1964.

Wide Receiver
Stanford
HT: 5-11 WT: 179
BORN: 3-25-65
Hometown:
Los Angeles, CA
(D-7, 170th Overall)

In the seventh round, Detroit selected Jeff James, a very underrated receiver from Stanford University. He is a talented receiver with outstanding running ability once he catches the football. His 154 catches rank fourth on the school's all-time list, and the Cardinal coaching staff ranks him right up there with Tony Hill, Ken Margerum and James Lofton, all of whom enjoyed tremendous success at Stanford.

James, an All-Pac 10 second-team pick last year, led the Cardinals in receiving with 42 receptions for 516 yards (12.3 average) and three touchdowns. He also averaged 23.9 yards on kickoff returns (10 returns). His best game of the season, yardage-wise, came against San Diego State when he gained 154 yards. James hauled in a season-high nine receptions versus San Jose State.

As a junior, he was second on the squad in receiving (third in the Pac-10) with 52 catches for 779 yards and 8 TDs (15.0 average). James was named to the second-team Pac-10 unit that season.

In 1985 James earned honorable mention all-conference honors after a 42-catch, 658-yard seasonal performance. He gained a career-high 167 receiving yards against Texas (10 receptions, two TDs).

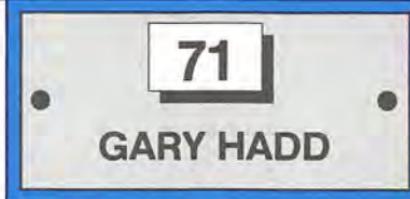

After a redshirt season in 1983, James made 18 receptions during his first full season with Stanford for a 17.3 average.

The Beverly Hills (Calif.) High graduate was a two-time All-Ocean League and All-Westside pick, and during his senior year James made 61 catches for 1,120 yards and nine touchdowns. He was an outstanding track and field athlete as well, winning the CIF 3-A championship in the 400 meters with a 47.9 time and finishing second in the long jump with a mark of 22-10.5.

James, who runs the forty in 4.56 seconds, was an economics major at Stanford and was born March 25, 1965.

Defensive Tackle-Nose Guard
Minnesota
HT: 6-4 WT: 270
BORN: 10-19-65
Hometown:
Burnsville, MN
(D-8, 197th Overall)

After three straight offensive picks, the Lions opted for defense with the drafting of Minnesota's Gary Hadd in the eighth round.

A three-year starter in the middle of the Gopher Line, Hadd played both defensive tackle and nose guard positions. He is a fierce run defender, known for his ability to shed his blocks quickly to come up with the big tackles. An extremely hard worker, Hadd was a solid pass rusher despite constant double team coverage.

Hadd totaled 49 tackles last year (20 solos), five for nine yards in losses while recovering one fumble.

Hadd continued

As a junior he was one of the league's (Big Ten) leaders in tackles for losses with 11 for 38-yards in losses. Hadd recorded 45 tackles (27 solos) and three sacks, in addition to two fumble recoveries that season.

After seeing considerable action as a freshman (23 total tackles, one fumble recovery, and four sacks), Hadd moved into the starting lineup the following year at nose guard. He came up with 24 tackles (13 solos), two sacks and three tackles for losses.

Hadd was an All-Conference and All-State defensive lineman at Burnsville (Minn.) High, where he earned a total of five letters in football, track and wrestling. He also handled the discus on the track team. A business major at Minnesota, Hadd was born October 19, 1965.

TODD IRVIN

Offensive Tackle
Mississippi
HT: 6-5 WT: 288
BORN: 2-1-66
Hometown:
Aberdeen, MS
(D-9, 235th Overall)

Known as a tough, hard-working individual, Mississippi's Todd Irvin was Detroit's second pick of the ninth round (as a result of a Nov. '87 trade of TE Jimmie Giles to Philadelphia).

Pro scouts feel that Irvin possesses the physical tools necessary to excel and he made great strides in the strength department during an intense off-season weight training program. He is a dominating drive blocker and a more than adequate pass protector.

Irvin, the fastest lineman for the Rebels last year (runs the forty in 4.9 seconds), was the mainstay of the offensive line from the strong side tackle position. He graded out at 89% during the season.

As a junior, Irvin started every game at right tackle and led the team with an 89% blocking grade.

In 1985, he saw action in 10 contests, missing one game with an ankle injury, while in 1984 Irvin moved from the number two tight end position after injuries depleted the offensive line. He was redshirted as a tight end during his first season (1983).

An All-Deep South Blue Chip selection at Aberdeen (Miss.) High, Irvin was selected the Mississippi Lineman of the Year by the Jackson Clarion-Ledger/Daily News his senior year. He also was an All-American choice by the Orlando Sentinel and Scholastic Coach Magazine. He caught 36 passes for 486 yards and five TDs his final year. Irvin majored in management at Mississippi and was born February 1, 1966.

PACO CRAIG

Wide Receiver
UCLA
HT: 5-10 WT: 170
BORN: 2-2-65
Hometown:
Santa Maria, CA
(D-10, 255th Overall)

A true "late-bloomer," UCLA receiver Paco Craig may prove to be a 10th-round steal by the Lions. After seeing limited playing time his first two years at UCLA, Craig came into his own as a junior and senior and finished his college career as the 12th-leading receiver in UCLA history with 61 receptions. As a senior, he shared the team's "Most Improved Player" Award.

He was second to UCLA teammate Willie Anderson in receiving last year with 29 catches for 520 yards and five TDs. His finest game in '87 came in a 31-23 Bruin win over Arizona State when he caught five passes for 102 yards and two TDs.

In 1986, he had 17 catches for 287 yards and two TDs. His best game that year was against Arizona when he had three receptions for 122 yards, including a 78-yard scoring toss in a 32-25 UCLA win.

Craig prepped at Ramona High (Riverside, CA) where he rushed for 837 yards (6.6 yds.) and scored 13 TDs as a senior. He also lettered in baseball, basketball and track. He stole 71 bases in three years of prep baseball. A history major at UCLA, Craig was born February 2, 1965, and his given name is Francisco Luis Craig.

DANNY McCOIN

Quarterback
Cincinnati
HT: 6-3 WT: 206
BORN: 8-31-64
Hometown:
Livingston, TN
(D-11, 282nd Overall)

Another Cincinnati signal-caller who Detroit scouts feel could develop into a top-flight talent, Danny McCoin was the Lions' final selection of the 1988 draft.

His skills have been compared to that of former Bearcat great Greg Cook, who led the nation in total offense in 1966 and was the AFL Rookie of the Year for the Bengals the following year.

McCoin, an outstanding long-range passer with great field vision, is very elusive with an excellent ability to avoid the rush. He was coached by Dave Currey, who tutored the likes of Jim Plunkett, Steve Dils and Turk Schonert at Stanford and Todd Dillon at Cal-Long Beach.

He broke Cook's school record for passing yards by throwing for 6,801 over his career. Last season, he connected on 59% of his attempts (158 of 268) for 2,013 yards and 13 touchdowns, ranking 18th in the nation in passing efficiency with a 132.1 rating. McCoin blistered Miami of Ohio for a career-high 399 yards on 27 of 36 passing, as well as scoring the game-winning TD from three yards out with 1:57 left to give the Bearcats a 31-26 win.

As a junior he finished as the 19th-ranked passer in the nation, with a 64.2 completion percentage (237 of 369) for 2,831 yards. He threw 13 TDs and 11 interceptions that season.

In 1985, McCoin completed 115 of 201 passes (57.2%) for 1,576 yards, 12 touchdowns and only five interceptions, ranking 13th nationally in passing efficiency.

McCoin lettered in three sports (football, basketball and baseball) at Livingston (Tenn.) Academy. In football, he passed for 2,180 yards and 23 TDs as a senior and 5,500 yards and 50 touchdowns over his career.

Majoring in education at Cincinnati, McCoin runs the forty in 5.02 seconds and he was born August 31, 1964.

INSTANT REPLAY APPROVED FOR 1988

For the third consecutive year, NFL clubs have approved a limited system of Instant Replay on a one-year basis.

The system basically stays the same as in 1987 with the exception that the Replay Official will now be assigned to a regular officiating crew and will attend crew meetings the day before each game. League office personnel will no longer be used as Replay Officials. In 1987, there were 490 plays closely reviewed (defined as a contact to the field, but not necessarily stoppage of play). There were 57 reversals in 210 games for an average of one reversal in each four games. In 1986, there were 374 plays closely reviewed resulting in 38 reversals in 224 games.

In 1986, the system was approved by a 23-4-1 vote. In 1987, the vote was 21-7. In 1988, replay was cleared by a 23-5 margin.

The NFL has discussed Instant Replay in some degree or other since the early 1970s. The League experimented in 1976 and 1978 using two basic frameworks—an independent system using cameras, replay machines, and technicians separate from the network covering the game, and a "no frills" approach using existing television coverage.

In 1985, the NFL used the network feed of nine nationally televised preseason games to experiment with the basic system that later was adopted for 1986 and 1987. A total of 28 plays were examined closely in 1985 (17 confirmed call, 4 were inconclusive, 1 was reversed, and 6 had no replay shown).

What is the objective of this system?

The clubs feel that on certain plays the telecast viewed by the general public should be used to correct an indisputable error. The system will be used to reverse an on-field decision only when the Replay Official has indisputable visual evidence available to him that warrants the change.

Is the television network carrying the game part of the review process?

No. Although the Replay Official will be viewing the live network feed, there is no communication to television personnel as to what plays to show or not to show.

What is the step-by-step procedure of play review?

The Replay Official will view game action and a play will be replayed immediately on one of the two monitors, while the other monitor continues to record the live feed.

The Replay Official makes a determination if further study of the play is needed. If not, there is no contact with the field and play continues without interruption.

If the Replay Official believes an error may have been made, the Umpire will be contacted via a headset.

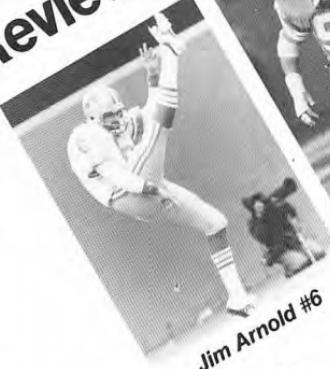

The Replay Official will watch replay(s) on one or both monitors and complete his review within a reasonable period after the play is over.

The Replay Official will inform the Umpire of his decision, and the Referee will make the appropriate announcement on the wireless microphone.

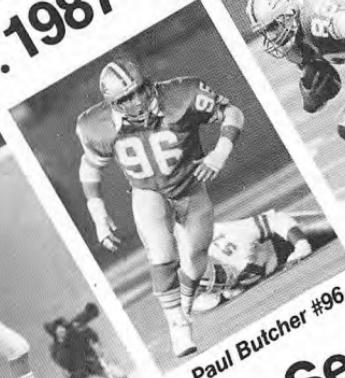

The limited Instant Replay system concentrates on plays of possession or touching (e.g., fumbles, receptions, interceptions, muffs) and most plays governed by the sidelines, goal lines, end lines, and line of scrimmage (e.g., receiver or runner in or out of bounds, forward or backward passes, breaking the plane of the goal line).

However, the Instant Replay system will not include the following fouls: clipping; encroachment and off-sides; grasp of facemask; false start; defensive pass interference; offensive pass interference; offensive holding and illegal use of hands; illegal batting or punching ball; illegal block on free kick or scrimmage kick; illegal crackback; illegal motion; illegal use of forearm or elbow; illegal use of hands by defense; illegally kicking the ball; illegally snapping the ball; intentional grounding; member of the punting team downfield early; illegal formation; palpably unfair act; piling on; roughing the passer; running into or roughing the kicker; striking, kicking, or kneeing; unnecessary roughness; unsportsmanlike conduct; and use of the helmet as a weapon.

DID YOU KNOW? DEPARTMENT

- The Lions' final 1987 50-man roster revealed 18 players (36% of the roster) who were not with the club at any time in 1986.
- Of those 18 new players, seven were acquired in the '87 draft and the rest were signed as free agents.
- Also, of those 18, four were starters at the close of the year: drafted rookies JERRY BALL (NT), DENNIS GIBSON (ILB) and GARY LEE (WR), and free agent safety RAPHEL CHERRY.
- EDDIE MURRAY successfully converted all 21 of his PAT attempts this season (which gives him 21 straight after he had missed his last PAT attempt in '86) and he converted eight of his last 10 field goal attempts this season.
- RICKY SMITH's 34-yard interception return for a TD against the Falcons marked the first time that a Lion had returned an interception for a TD since Nov. 21, 1982, when RAY OLDHAM had a 35-yard scoring return at Chicago.
- EDDIE MURRAY's 53-yard field goal against the Rams (12-16-87) was the second longest in the NFL in 1987 (behind Nick Lowery's 54-yard against the Lions on Thanksgiving Day) and tied with Raul Allegre of the Giants. Murray's kick was also the second longest in Lions' history.
- Murray also led the Lions in scoring for the eighth straight season, and he continued to add to his career marks in points (765), PATs (249) and field goals (172).
- CHUCK LONG was second in the NFC (behind Neil Lomax of St. Louis with 463) in pass attempts and third in pass completions (behind San Francisco's Joe Montana with 266 and Lomax at 275).
- PETE MANDLEY placed fifth in the NFC in pass receptions (third among wide receivers) with 58 catches and fifth in the conference in punt return average (10.9).
- JAMES GRIFFIN's six interceptions tied Minnesota's Joey Browner for second-best in the NFC behind Washington's Barry Wilburn, who had nine interceptions in '87.
- In becoming the first Lion chosen for the Pro Bowl since '83, JIM ARNOLD set a Pro Bowl record with a punting average of 49.6, in addition to his 1987 NFL season record 39.6 net punting average.
- Rookie punt returner GARY LEE finished fourth in the NFC with a 22.5 kickoff return average, which also placed him sixth in the NFL.
- Cornerback BRUCE McNORTON led the squad in minutes played with 370.9, while PETE MANDLEY was tops among offensive players with 326.6.

THE PONTIAC SILVERDOME

The Pontiac Silverdome has been "Home Sweet Home" for the Detroit Lions since the last brick was put in place in 1975. During those 13 years the building has earned a reputation as one of the finest sports facilities in the world. Not even a freak, late-winter snowstorm on Mar. 4, 1985, which caused extensive structural damage to the roof, could keep the Silverdome from maintaining its enviable stature in the sports world. A new canvas and steel-girder reinforced roof was added between March and June of 1985.

Since a 27-24 pre-season game victory over the Kansas City Chiefs on Aug. 23, 1975, the Lions have played 123 games in the Silverdome after moving from their former home at Tiger Stadium (nee Briggs Stadium) in downtown Detroit. The Lions have posted a 67-56-2 overall record in Pontiac, including a 52-44-1 mark in regular-season games (a .541 winning percentage).

Though the Silverdome is the Lions' home, the Cincinnati Bengals and the San Francisco 49ers made NFL history in the building on Jan. 24, 1982, the 49ers defeated the Bengals, 26-21, before a crowd of 81,270 in Super Bowl XVI—the only Super Bowl ever played in a northern U.S. city.

The Silverdome was built at a cost of $55.7 million. It was occupied in just 23 months, on time and within budget, from its ground breaking on Sept. 19, 1973. During the roof's reconstruction a year ago, the Teflon-coated fiber glass panels (100 in all) that span the roof were completely replaced, and several structural modifications and safety improvements also were accomplished. The roof was re-inflated by workmen on May 30, 1985.

A BRIEF HISTORY OF THE DETROIT LIONS

Cautious optimism abounds in the Motor City where the Detroit Lions' Head Coach Darryl Rogers enters his fourth season at the helm of a youthful, but talented Lions' squad. After three seasons of transition, the Lions are confident they can this year become challengers for the NFC Central Division crown.

Only five starters remain from the Lions' team Rogers inherited in 1985. The transition has been slow, and sometimes painful, but positive results appear to be on the horizon.

Detroit welcomed the Lions in 1934, but it was not the area's first look at professional football.

In 1920, the Detroit Heralds were a charter member of the American Professional Football Association, which was the original name of the present NFL. But the club folded after two years. Then, the Detroit Panthers appeared in 1925. They also folded after two seasons. In 1928, the Detroit Wolverines were formed, but they failed after just one year.

In 1930, the then ten-year-old National Football League added a franchise from Portsmouth, Ohio, called the Spartans. After four seasons, the team was purchased for less than $8,000 by Detroit radio executive George A. Richards and moved to the Motor City.

Playing in the University of Detroit Stadium before average crowds of 16,000 people, the new Detroit Lions won the NFL Championship in their second year, 1935. Under the leadership of Coach "Potsy" Clark and stars like Hall of Famer "Dutch" Clark, Ernie Caddel, George Christensen, "Ace" Gutowsky, Glenn Presnell and "Ox" Emerson, the early Lions established pro football in Detroit. For more than 50 years, they have been an integral part of the Michigan sports scene.

In 1940, Chicagoan Fred Mandel bought the club. Lions' stars of that era were Hall of Famers Bill Dudley and Alex Wojciechowicz, John Green, "Whizzer" White, Frank Sinkwich and "Camp" Wilson. The team was sold eight years later, to a group of local businessmen under the leadership of Edwin J. Anderson. The Detroit syndicate controlled the club until 1964 when William Clay Ford became sole owner for a price of $4.5 million.

The Lions dominated the NFL in the 1950s with four division titles and three League championships. Under Head Coach Buddy Parker, the team won back-to-back world crowns in 1952 and 1953, defeating Cleveland in both title games. Stars of those glittering teams were Hall of Famers Bobby Layne and Jack Christiansen, along with Doak Walker, Les Bingaman, Cloyce Box, Leon Hart and Bob Hoernschemeyer. The Detroit-Cleveland battles of the era were classic confrontations between to giants of the blossoming NFL.

Since their last title in 1957 under the coaching of George Wilson, the Lions have been looking in vain for the top spot. Such recent performers as Joe Schmidt, Yale Lary and "Night Train" Lane have been elected to the Hall of Fame. Outstanding players like Wayne Walker, Mike Lucci, Nick Pietrosante, Roger Brown, Terry Barr, Lem Barney, Charlie Sanders, Dexter Bussey, Billy Sims and Doug English have taken their places in the annals of pro football in Detroit.

In 1967, Schmidt began the first of six seasons as head coach of the Lions. His 1970 team made the post-season playoffs, but lost in the first round to Dallas by the baseball-like score of 5-0.

Just prior to the '75 season, the Lions moved into a new, domed stadium in Pontiac, Michigan, a town of 85,000 people located 30 miles north of Detroit. The Silverdome is the world's largest air-supported domed structure and seats over 80,000 spectators under a fiberglass roof.

Monte Clark took control of all football operations as head coach in 1978. Under Clark's direction, the Lions narrowly missed playoff berths in both 1980 and 1981, before finally qualifying in 1982 — the first time the Lions made the playoffs since 1970. Detroit captured the NFC Central Division crown in 1983, but stumbled in the first round of the playoffs with a 24-23 loss to San Francisco. Clark was released after the Lions fell to 4-11-1 in 1984.

LIONS' RADIO

In 1988 the Detroit Lions' radio network will be comprised of 16 stations throughout the state of Michigan, and directed by flagship station WJR (760) Radio in Detroit.

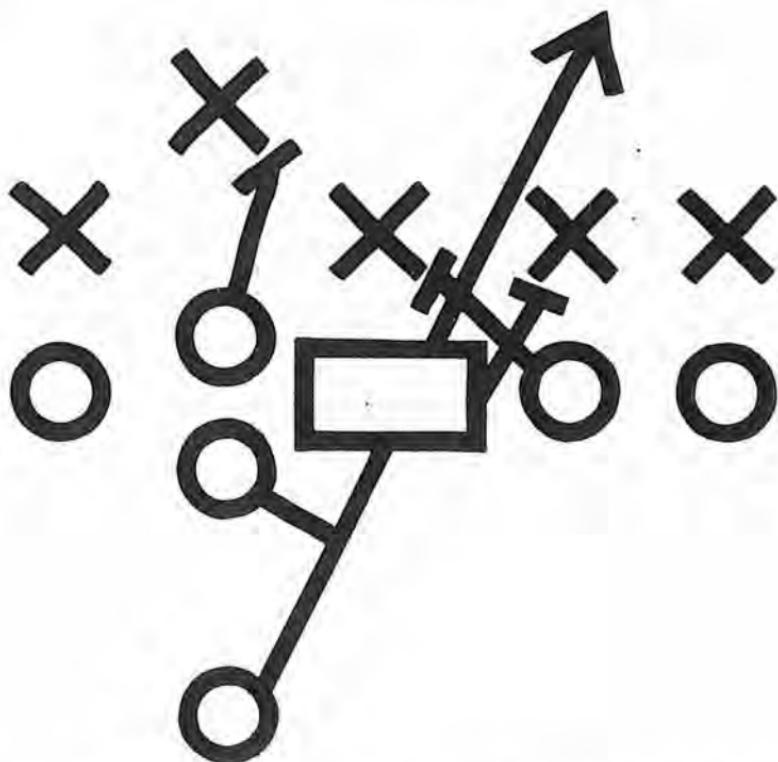

Again this fall, the Lions' broadcasting team will feature play-by-play man and WJR sports director Frank Beckmann, while former Lions' Pro Bowl tight end Charlie Sanders and Detroit radio and television sports personality Jim Brandstatter will provide the commentary. WJR's 50,000-watt signal delivers to 112 counties in Michigan, Indiana, Ohio and Canada.

During late summer and early fall, when the Detroit Tigers' games are carried on WJR at a time concurrent with a Lions' contest, the Lions' games can be heard on another Detroit AM station, WCXI (1130), also a 50,000-watt station.
